James Mitchell.],1836 Divine Principles Kenneth Paul Ungerecht,2019-01-07 Divine Principles is a systematic and determined search for important aspects of spiritual truth It uses the tools of science to establish two fundamental principles of our spiritual nature It then applies the same methods to examine and evaluate a wide variety of related ideas in light of those precepts The question of whether or not there is a spiritual aspect to the human condition is one that needs to be laid to rest The science in Divine Principles proves its existence to an essentially absolute level of confidence But there are millions and millions of people around the world who came to that conclusion long before that was done These people come from all religious non religious and other philosophical backgrounds And whether they have come to their knowingness through faith reason or a combination of the two doesn t matter They have learned how to begin accessing the power contained within that aspect to enrich their lives in ways beyond measure But as world and cultural societies we have not done too well in that regard We have squabbled fought wars and tried to impose our will on others over petty religious and philosophical differences for far too long We have squandered the potential within that divine source It is a mystery and one we will almost surely never completely unravel But we can uncover important truths that it contains that can help us begin to use that power more efficiently and wisely But in order to do that we need to change the ways in which we go about finding those truths Divine Principles is my contribution that would seek to promote that change The Nature of Principles Steven S. Coughlin (Ph. D.),2008 The Apocalypse Explained Emanuel Swedenborg,2025-07-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1836 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Letters to a Trinitarian; Or, The Doctrine of the Tripersonality of Jehovah Inconsistent with the Truth of Incarnation George Bush,1850
