Dispatches From The War Against The World Poems:

Dispatches from the War Against the World Anthony Weir, 1994 A New Way of Seeing Michael Sarnowski, 2025-06-04 A New Way of Seeing considers the poetry of five writers Louis Simpson Keith Douglas Richard Hugo Howard Nemerov and Randall Jarrell whose work draws on their activities as soldiers in World War II Basing his examination on extensive primary source research Michael Sarnowski identifies distance both literal and figurative and traumatic memory as two interconnected elements of how these poets internalized the war and made sense of the events they witnessed The book is structured on a gradient related to each poet's proximity to combat as the chapters in turn focus on an infantryman Simpson a tank commander Douglas a bombardier Hugo a pilot Nemerov and a stateside flight instructor Jarrell Sarnowski relies on a wealth of archival material overlooked by previous scholarship including poem drafts correspondence flight logs and personal belongings The conclusion revisits notions of legacy and representation by assessing factors that contributed to the early labeling of World War II soldiers as a Silent Generation in contrast to the outpouring of poetry published during and following the First World War By exploring how poets processed their wartime experiences A New Way of Seeing offers a stark reminder of why it remains vital to recognize the physical mental and psychological consequences endured by veterans

The New Oxford Book of War Poetry Jon Stallworthy, 2014-06-26 There can be no area of human experience that has generated a wider range of powerful feelings than war Jon Stallworthy's classic and celebrated anthology spans centuries of human experience of war from Homer's Iliad through the First and Second World Wars the Vietnam War and the wars fought since This new edition published to mark the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War includes a new introduction additional poems from David Harsent and Peter Wyton amongst others The new selection provides improved coverage of the two World Wars and the Vietnam War and new coverage of the wars of the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries
