The Theology of Paradoxes Kari Kopperi,2025-07-14 In April 1518 a pivotal event in Martin Luther's career took place in Heidelberg This was the Heidelberg Disputation where Luther defended his theology for the first time since the famous Ninety Five Theses In these theses Luther not only defined the content of his theology of the cross but also presented his views on the differences between the love of God and the love of man In his study Kari Kopperi offers the first comprehensive analysis of this key Reformation text The author scrutinizes Luther's theology of love the theology of the cross and Luther's understanding of the relationship between theology and philosophy The theses of the Heidelberg Disputation are placed in a rich sixteenth century context and a new interpretation of their content is presented Kopperi shows that several interpretations of the central theses of Luther's Reformation theology need to be revised based on questions created by nineteenth century neo Protestant theology

Colmo, 2005-03-28 In this controversial new book Christopher A Colmo offers a view of the 10th century Arab philosopher Alfarabi that draws attention to a previously unremarked aspect of his philosophic project Colmo argues that as a philosopher Alfarabi felt compelled to question the philosophic tradition as deeply as he might question religious tradition and this he did with such power and brilliance that the result was a new philosophic perspective With unique access to both Islamic and pagan philosophical traditions Alfarabi took the side of Greek philosophy as representative of human reason and defended its ultimate autonomy However Alfarabi went further moving away from Plato and Aristotle's vision of philosophy as divine to an understanding of philosophy in a way that allowed it to be seen as knowledge and action in the service of human power and happiness Alfarabi offers a powerful new answer to the question why philosophy His subtle defense of and debate with the ancients raises questions of hermeneutics as well as substantive questions of philosophy politics and theology Breaking With Athens sheds new light on Alfarabi's enduring answers to perennial questions making it essential for students of philosophy political science theology and the history of ideas History of Philosophy, from Thales to the Present Time Friedrich Ueberweg, 1885 Origins of Legislative Sovereignty and the Legislative State: Classical, Medieval, and Renaissance foundations of Corasius' systematic methodology A.
