Dissident Geographies An Introduction To Radical Ideas And Practice:

Dissident Geographies Alison Blunt, Jane Wills, 2016-07-08 Dissident Geographies is an accessible and lively exploration of radical perspectives in human geography. The perspectives examined in the book reveal and resist certain power relations that have constituted geographical knowledge. The book has two main aims. First, rather than reify the geographical tradition, Dissident Geographies introduces a number of geographical traditions that challenge and destabilize what counts as geographical knowledge. Second, the book shows how the production of geographical knowledge is tied to politics and struggles outside as well as within the academy. In each chapter, case studies illustrate the spatiality of political practice and the politics of geographical thought. In this way, Dissident Geographies reveals the connections between power, politics, and geographical knowledge.

Theories of Resistance Marcelo Lopes de Souza, Richard J. White, Simon Springer, 2016-06-17 Space is never a neutral stage on which social actors play their roles; sometimes cooperating with each other, sometimes struggling against each other. Space has multiple and complex functions in the development of social relations; it is a reference for identity building, a material condition for existence, and an instrument of power. This book explores the ways in which space has been used for resistance, especially in left libertarian contexts. From the early anarchist organizing efforts in the 19th century to the contemporary social movements of the Mexican Zapatistas, the chapters examine a range of cases to illustrate both the limits and potentialities of utilizing space within anarchist practice. By theorizing the production of anarchist spaces, the book aims to foster new geographical imaginations that energetically cultivate alternative practices to challenge the status quo. It shows that spatial reorganization, spatial practices, and spatial resources are also a basic condition for human emancipation, autonomy, and freedom.

Social Geography Vincent J. Del Casino, Jr., 2009-03-09 Introducing the debates that inform current social geographic research and theory and interrogating the historical development of social geography. Social Geography: A Critical Introduction explores how urban and rural spaces are organized in ways that construct and maintain social inequality. It puts into context the assumptions of various strains of social geographic thought as they have developed historically. Assists students in addressing key social geographic questions and methodologies. Provides a showcase for cutting edge work in the field. Is written in an accessible and lively style, setting out a wide breadth of social geographic research.

Understanding Cultural Geography Jon Anderson, 2009-09-22 The book presents specific chapters outlining the history of cultural geography before and beyond representation, as well as the methods and techniques of doing cultural geography. It investigates the places and traces of corporate capitalism, nationalism, ethnicity, youth culture, and the place of the body. Throughout these chapters, case study examples will be used to illustrate how these places are taken and made by particular cultures. Examples include the Freedom Tower in New York City. Publisher's description.

Methodologies in Critical Terrorism Studies Alice E. Finden, Carlos Yebra López, Tarela Ike, Ugo Gaudino, Samwel Oando, 2024-01-04 This interdisciplinary book presents an intervention into methodological practices in the subfield of Critical Terrorism Studies and features established and early career scholars The volume interrogates the role that research methods play in shaping the sub discipline of Critical Terrorism Studies CTS It responds to two major methodological gaps within CTS 1 the dearth of Global South cases and voices and decolonial and feminist approaches and 2 the lack of engagement with traditional disciplines and quantitative methods Together authors demonstrate that interdisciplinary methodological dialogues can open up new possibilities for researchers seeking pathways towards and definitions of emancipation social justice and freedom from violence Simultaneously the book shows that by focusing on the possibilities that methodologies open up to us and by maintaining a commitment to reflexive practice we expand our understandings of what are legitimate and acceptable forms of research thus challenging the Critical Terrorism Studies divide The chapters draw upon a wide range of empirical cases including Nigeria Kenya France Brazil and the UK focusing on three key issues within Critical Terrorism Studies its own relationship with and perpetuation of epistemic violence decolonial postcolonial Global South feminist and queer approaches and more traditional approaches and methods as a means to interrogate the methodological binary between Critical Terrorism Studies and Terrorism Studies This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies counter terrorism security studies and International Relations in general

Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2022-06-15 Arabic Disclosures presents readers with a comparative analysis of Arabic postcolonial autobiographical writing In Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J al Musawi investigates the genre of autobiography within the modern tradition of Arabic literary writing from the early 1920s to the present Al Musawi notes in the introduction that the purpose of this work is not to survey the entirety of autobiographical writing in modern Arabic but rather to apply a rigorously identified set of characteristics and approaches culled from a variety of theoretical studies of the genre to a particular set of autobiographical works in Arabic selected for their different methodologies varying historical contexts within which they were conceived and written and the equally varied lives experienced by the authors involved The book begins in the larger context of autobiographical space where the theories of Bourdieu Bachelard Bakhtin and Lefebvre are laid out and then considers the multiple ways in which a postcolonial awareness of space has impacted the writings of many of the authors whose works are examined Organized chronologically al Musawi begins with the earliest modern example of autobiographical work in h usayn s book translated into English as The Stream of Days Al Musawi studies some of the major pioneers in the development of modern Arabic thought and literary expression Jurj Zayd n M k l Nu aymah A mad Am n Sal mah M s Sayyid Qu b and untranslated works by the prominent critic and scholar amm d amm d the novelist liah Mamd and others He also examines the autobiographies of a number of women including Naw l al Sa d w and Fadw q n and fiction writers The book draws a map of Arab thought and culture in its multiple engagements with other cultures and will be useful for scholars and students of comparative literature Arabic studies and Middle Eastern studies intellectual thought and history
