Distant Voices The Genesis Of An Indigenous Literature In Dominica:

Distant Voices : the Genesis of an Indigenous Literature in Dominica Andre, Irving W,1995 Distant Voices Irving W. Andre,2021 Jean Rhys Elaine Savory,1998 Jean Rhys has long been central to debates in feminist modernist Caribbean British and postcolonial writing Elaine Savory's study first published in 1999 incorporates and modifies previous critical approaches and is a critical reading of Rhys's entire oeuvre including the stories and autobiography and is informed by Rhys's own manuscripts Designed both for the serious scholar on Rhys and those unfamiliar with her writing Savory's book insists on the importance of a Caribbean centred approach to Rhys and shows how this context profoundly affects her literary style Informed by contemporary arguments on race gender class and nationality Savory explores Rhys's stylistic innovations her use of colours her exploitation of the trope of performance her experiments with creative non fiction and her incorporation of the metaphysical into her texts This study offers a comprehensive account of the life and work of this most complex and enigmatic of writers The Cambridge Introduction to Jean Rhys Elaine Savory,2009-04-02 A student friendly guide to the life work context and reception of the author of Wide Sargasso Sea Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke,2002-12-15 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora Remnants of Conquest Peter Hulme,2000 This will be a useful text for courses in postcolonial literature especially those that have an emphasis on travel and inter cultural encounter However it also may have a broader appeal for graduate courses and research concerned with the cultural geography of race ethnicity and indigeneity Cultural Geographies The book addresses a compelling range of questions about travel indigenous identity and postcoloniality A key contribution of this book is its exploration of complex
