Whether you like it or not if you don't take steps and manage your online presence your customers and clients will. It's not enough to just have a website; social networking sites are the new word of mouth marketing channels and they're very powerful in spreading the word. To achieve this successfully adds more work to your busy day, but marketing your products and services online enables you to reach potential customers with very little financial outlay. Lots of online marketing can be done for free and you can save costs in advertising in publications and printing leaflets and brochures. Online Marketing for Small Businesses in easy steps guides you through the essential steps you need to take to set your online strategy, make your website work for you, and then covers the key social networking sites to generate a stronger and more loyal customer base. It concentrates on activities that are essential and free and steers clear of costly forms of online marketing. This new guide in the In Easy Steps series will help you learn about online marketing in digestible chunks. Chapter 1 will help you work out where your customers are talking and set your social media goals. Chapter 2 covers getting the most out of your website. Then start working on the social networking sites where your customers are most active. Covers Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Pinterest, and Google Plus.

INTRODUCTION There comes a time when the elastic snaps. When you push yourself to breaking point and everything crashes down. My breaking point came on a gloomy Monday morning commute in 2015. Sitting in my car waiting for the lights to change, I looked at two guys in their cars on either side of me. They looked as miserable as I felt. At that moment, I burst into tears. What the fuck was I doing with my life? I was unhappy in my personal life and hated my job. I couldn't see a way out. I was too invested in my career, too old to start again. Looking back, I didn't know jack shit about building a fitness business. Corporate marketing is one thing. Doing everything from scratch alone in a different industry is another. I didn't have a creative agency or a multimillion-pound budget. All I had was a Personal Trainer certificate and the ironparadisefitness.com domain name. Nevertheless, I started building my online empire. Or, as I now refer to it, pissing in the wind for two years. I would write lousy articles, post selfies, and wonder why clients weren't beating down my virtual door. Desperate to carve a way out of corporate life, I vowed not to quit. My business was my obsession. Going out, meeting friends, and taking a break were a rarity. I thought it was the only way to be successful. I became a hermit. A recluse. Like the creepy guy kids fear in horror movies. That's Old Man Mitchell from No. 29. He never leaves the house. Some say he only goes outside to dispose of the dead bodies. I wasn't that bad, but my social life went on ice. I studied nutrition and learned the intricacies of exercise mechanics. I read books and invested in courses on social media copywriting and web design. Iron Paradise Fitness had consumed my entire life, and I loved it. It was the fire in my belly I'd been missing. The passion I needed. Although it did make for awkward conversations on Tinder dates. What do you like to do in your spare time? The innocent question would come. Well, I'm building my own business right now, so that's my main focus. Ah, cool. But what do you like to do for fun? Work on my business. Yeah, but what about when you're not doing that? I'm either working on my business, thinking about working
