Fast Future David D. Burstein, 2013-02-12 A millennial examines how his generation is profoundly impacting politics business media and activism They've been called trophy kids entitled narcissistic the worst employees in history and even the dumbest generation But argues David Burstein the millennial generation's unique blend of civic idealism and savvy pragmatism will enable us to overcome a deeply divided nation facing economic and environmental calamities With eighty million millennials people who are today eighteen to thirty years old coming of age and emerging as leaders this is the largest generation in U S history and by 2020 its members will represent one out of every three adults They are more ethnically and racially diverse than their elders and have begun their careers at a time when the recession has set back the job market Yet they remain optimistic about their future and are deeply connected to one another Drawing on extensive interviews with his millennial peers and compelling new research Burstein illustrates how his generation is simultaneously shaping and being shaped by a fast paced and fast changing world Part oral history part social documentary Fast Future reveals the impact and story of the millennial generation in its own words The Content Makers Margaret Simons,2007-09-03 In The Content Makers Margaret Simons explains the changes taking place in the Australian media She analyses audiences our major media organisations the role of government and the implications of all of these for our society and our democracy Her examination leads her to the conclusion that the challenges facing the content providers in the modern world are part of a broader striving a very old struggle we might call it the search for meaning The big media businesses may or may not survive into the future but content certainly will because we need it and have always needed it The Content Makers delivers a visceral understanding of how modern media works gives a plain language explanation of new media and provides straightforward information on recent changes to ownership legislation and what they mean But most importantly it suggests a vision for the future a new way of looking at the role of the content makers and how they and their audiences might find new hope and purpose in the future ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND CONTEMPORARY
