

The book cover features a composite image. In the foreground, a dark bird with iridescent blue and purple feathers is perched on a weathered branch, looking towards the right. The background is a surreal landscape with a body of water under a sky of vibrant red and orange clouds. A silhouette of a person is running across the horizon. The bottom half of the cover is dominated by a large, glowing red sphere with intricate, web-like patterns. The author's name is at the top, and the title is at the bottom.

Deadly Intrusion Walter Dillon, 1987 The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction Natural Disasters in a Global Environment Anthony N. Penna, Jennifer S. Rivers, 2013-05-07 Natural Disasters in a Global Environment is a transnational global and environmental history of natural and man made disasters Detailed case studies of past and present events are presented in a historical narrative making use of the most recent scholarship Examines a range of disasters including volcanoes earthquakes floods landslides hurricanes famines and more Highlights the role of science in studying natural disasters and describes the mechanisms responsible for them Features a range of case studies which can be used in conjunction with one another or as standalone examples Covers scientific material in a lucid and accessible style suited to undergraduate students or those outside of scientific disciplines Traces the transition of our understanding of disasters from religious and superstitious explanations to contemporary scientific accounts Cities in a Time of Terror: Space,

Territory, and Local Resilience H.V. Savitch, 2014-12-18 This book is about urban terror its meaning its ramifications and its impact on city life Written by a well known expert in the field Cities in a Time of Terror draws on data from more than a thousand cities across the globe and traces the evolution of urban terrorism between 1968 and 2006 It explains what kinds of cities have become prime targets why terrorism has become increasingly lethal and how its inspiration has changed from secular to religious The author describes urban terrorism as an attempt to use the city s own strength against itself forcing it to implode and delineates three basic logics of terrorist choices for targeting cities The book also includes a discussion of local resilience the city s capacity to bounce back from attack and suggests how that can be sustained Examples from New York London Jerusalem Istanbul Moscow Paris and Madrid illustrate the book s central themes Forever Boys James Lawton, 2015-09-24 Sunday Times Sports Book of the Year 2015 Sometimes you love a football team not only for their strengths the splendour of their play and the appealing thrust of their character but also the haunting possibility that their best hopes may never be fulfilled This has rarely been demonstrated so vividly as by the Manchester City team who briefly but unforgettably illuminated the late sixties And no one was more caught up in their struggles and their triumphs than James Lawton a young sportswriter starting out on a career that would take him to all the great events of world sport Yet still 50 years after Joe Mercer and Malcolm Allison began to shape the brilliant team he counts watching their rise to glory as one of the most exciting times of his professional life Francis Lee Colin Bell Mike Summerbee these players loomed large over the game as they charged at the peaks of English football and today evoke a period of the sport s history that seems distant and unknowable hard to see except through the rose tinted gloss of nostalgia Lawton goes back to those heroes interviewing all the main players and characters who are still alive and vividly brings to life the story of that City team which with such wonderful panache and freedom won the first division title the FA Cup the League Cup and the European Cup Winners Cup between 1967 and 1970 This though is not just the story of one team but a broader one of how sport can sometimes so perfectly mirror the exaltation and the despair of the real world how it carries those who do it and sometimes even those who merely see it to moments that will claim a permanent place in their hearts The Armchair Detective ,1988 In the Secret Place Alexander Smellie,1907 The Yale Law Journal ,1926 Exploring the Transnational Neighbourhood Stephan Ehrig,Britta C. Jung,Gad Schaffer,2022-10-13 Urban neighbourhoods have come to occupy the public imagination as a litmus test of migration with some areas hailed as multicultural success stories while others are framed as ghettos In an attempt to break down this dichotomy Exploring the Transnational Neighbourhood filters these debates through the lenses of geography anthropology and literary and cultural studies By establishing the interdisciplinary concept of the transnational neighbourhood it presents these localities whether Clichy sous Bois Belfast El Segundo Barrio or Williamsburg as densely packed contact zones where disparate cultures meet in often highly asymmetrical relations producing a constantly shifting local and cultural knowledge about identity belonging and familiarity Exploring the Transnational Neighbourhood offers a pivotal response to one of the key questions of our time How do people create a sense of community within an exceedingly globalised context By focusing on the neighbourhood as a central space of transcultural everyday experience within three different levels of discourse i e the virtual the physical local and the transnational global the multidisciplinary contributions explore bottom up practices of community building alongside cultural social economic and historical barriers Intruder in Your Home Ronald L.
