

POEM – The day he left

They say when good things arrive,
They bring in a happy cry,
Good memories thrive
And emotions fly high

Nights spent
Connections ignited yet again
The way those hours went
The late-night convos starting from ten

But time arrives,
Thrashing and dismantling the wheels of happiness and love
The only thing are the memories, that survives
Above everything, above all

The cliché, the usual,
Goodbyes are hard
Though cliché, are casual
And the ones not not not easy to discard

I drove him to the Airport, the nearest one
It was all silence on the way
Just flashbacks and fun
To only time I wish, delay
