Daybreak, 2250 A.D. Andre Norton,1976*      Daybreak, 2250 A.D. Alice Mary Norton,1952 Two centuries after an atomic war on earth a silver haired mutant sets out on a dangerous search for a lost city of the ruined civilization      Star Man's Son, 2250 A.D. Andre Norton,1952 Two centuries after an atomic war on earth a silver haired mutant sets out on a dangerous search for a lost city of the ruined civilization      Daybreak ... 2250 A.D. Andre Norton,      Beyond Earth's Gates. Daybreak - 2250 A.D. Lewis Padgett,C.L. Moore,André orton,1954      Star Man's Son Andre Norton,1985 A mutant boy sets out to find the lost city which was not poisoned by the ancient atomic war      Young Adult Science Fiction C. W. Sullivan III,1999-03-30 At the close of the nineteenth century American youths developed a growing interest in electricity and its applications machines and gadgetry When authors and publishers recognized the extent of this interest in technology they sought to create reading materials that would meet this market need The result was science fiction written especially for young adults While critics tended to neglect young adult science fiction for decades they gradually came to recognize its practical and cultural value Science fiction inspired many young adults to study science and engineering and helped foster technological innovation At the same time these works also explored cultural and social concerns more commonly associated with serious literature Nor was young adult science fiction a peculiarly American phenomenon authors in other countries likewise wrote science fiction for young adult readers This book examines young adult science fiction in the U S and several other countries and explores issues central to the genre The first part of the book treats the larger contexts of young adult science fiction and includes chapters on its history and development Included are discussions of science fiction for young adults in the U S and in Canada Great Britain Germany and Australia These chapters are written by expert contributors and chart the history of young adult science fiction from the nineteenth century to the present The second section of the book considers topics of special interest to young adult science fiction Some of the chapters look at particular forms and expressions of science fiction such as films and comic books Others treat particular topics such as the portrayal of women in Robert Heinlein s works and representations of war in young adult science fiction Yet another chapter studies the young adult science fiction novel as a coming of age story and thus helps distinguish the genre from science fiction written for adult readers All chapters reflect current research and the volume concludes with extensive bibliographies      Darkness and Dawn Andre Norton,2003-03-01 NO NIGHT LASTS FOREVER Centuries after the civilized world destroyed itself in a dimly remembered final war a few rebels courageously searched through the shattered cities trying to regain old knowledge One was Fors driven from his clan for the crime of being a mutant Though his people had long searched the remnants of the old world to regain the knowledge and skills of their ancestors the land to the north was forbidden Having nothing to lose Pars and his feline companion set out to the north little realizing what a staggering discovery they would make Elsewhere Sander also searched for the Before People who were said to have survived the great devastation Then he encountered Fanyl engaged in her own quest for the knowledge of the Before People And soon they would find themselves threatened by an ancient evil which destroyed not just lives but minds as well At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management The sky s no limit to Andre Norton s imagination a superb storyteller The New York Times Extraordinary Washington Post Imaginative and exciting San Francisco Chronicle Gripping adventure that will keep the reader on the edge of his seat until the final page Seattle Times First rate entertainment you should not miss it Fantasy Science Fiction
