Dead Funny A Second Of Grave Humour:

Dead Funny, 1982 Lexical Creativity, Texts and Contexts Judith Munat, 2007-11-06 The coining of novel lexical items and the creative manipulation of existing words and expressions is heavily dependent on contextual factors including the semantic stylistic textual and social environments in which they occur The twelve specialists contributing to this collection aim to illuminate creativity in word formation with respect to functional discourse roles but also examine critical creativity determined by language policy as well as diachronic phonetic variation in creatively coined words The data based either on large corpora or smaller hand collected samples is drawn from advertising the daily press electronic communication literature spoken interaction cartoons lexical ontologies and style guides The coining of novel lexical items and the creative manipulation of existing words and expressions is heavily dependent on contextual factors including the semantic stylistic textual and social environments in which they occur The twelve specialists contributing to this collection aim to illuminate creativity in word formation with respect to functional discourse roles but also examine critical creativity determined by language policy as well as diachronic phonetic variation in creatively coined words The data based either on large corpora or smaller hand collected samples is drawn from advertising the daily press electronic communication literature spoken interaction cartoons lexical ontologies and style guides Each study analyses novel formations in relation to their contexts of use and inevitably leads to the crucial question of creativity vs productivity By focussing on creative lexical formations at the level of parole these studies provide insights into morphological theory at the level of langue and ultimately seek to explain lexical creativity as a function of language use Fritz Spiegl's Sick Notes: An Alphabetical Browsing-Book of Derivatives, Abbreviations, Mnemonics and Slang for Amusement and Edification of Medics, Nurses, Patients and Hypochondriacs Fritz Spiegl, 1996-02-15 This dictionary is in the very best sense a good read It explains the meanings and derivations of the medical terms abbreviations mnemonics and slang used by doctors nurses and health care professionals publicly and privately It defines for instance the abbreviations doctors use in writing prescriptions and explains the Latin and Greek derivations of medical terms The author writes clearly and often humorously not hesitating to voice his personal opinions He guides his readers through the world of medical language like a good friend clarifying cautioning and teaching with wit and laughter About the Author Fritz Spiegl has written many books including Dead Funny The Joy of Words and The Guinness Book of Musical Blunders in prep and is a popular BBC radio commentator especially revered for his mastery of the English language Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come

Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage

Humor and Aging Lucille Nahemow, Kathleen A. McCluskey-Fawcett, Paul E. McGhee, 1986 Humor and Aging deals with humor throughout the life span although primary attention is given to humor about and by the elderly The book contains theoretical and review material from infancy to old age and includes empirical studies of death and dying in both our own and other societies The book is divided into four parts Part I considers theoretical models of humor development across the life span and discusses physiological psychological and sociological processes Part II deals with ways of considering humor and aging from different vantage points These include 1 humor about people
