Dead Innocent:

Dead Timber Louis Esson,1920 Mindandbelief.Com Eugene G. Breen,2014-11-06 The human mind is the pinnacle of creation It is spiritual and emanates from the human brain initially at any rate It is sociable and abstract and has an enormous coefficient of expansion It can love It can think It can believe It is the faculty that sets us apart from all other levels of being on the planet It inhabits a dying world which has flickers of life like fireworks which sooner or later disappear like Chinese lanterns in the sky We disappear too but our minds live on hankering to be reunited with our old flames our bodies Then the orchestra rises in crescendo as our minds and bodies reunite for better or for worse and ride into the sunset Great stuff Read all about it The mind and body inseparable in life and separated at death reappear in This is Your Life Last Epic Episode What will it be A comedy a tragedy or a thriller It is all up to free will and belief The believing mind is all powerful provided it engages rationality honestly Memory and Peace Francis Anekwe Oborji,2020-11-11 The Latin adage Si vis pacem para bellum if you want peace prepare for war is usually interpreted as peace through strength It expresses the idea that being armed and ready to fight in order to defend oneself is a viable way of keeping the peace However the truism of the adage is expressed by the author who argues for peace and sustainable development of Africa at large in the light of the Nigerian Biafra struggle He intellectually equips readers with memories of the past lest the mistakes of history be repeated The author uses the power of the pen as a weapon mightier than the sword to discuss the structures of peace in the African context He weighs in a balance the need for restructuring and the right for self determination the way to freedom and collective effort towards development This volume contains articles that propose potential and functional solutions to the perennial challenges presently facing Nigeria as a country Interestingly the reflections recommend steps towards cordial reconciliation and the liberating spirit that would catalyze the restoration of an emerging nation the Republic of Biafra The volume further expands the ongoing ideas and thoughts on a variety of issues that offer roadmaps to the contextual problems of the indigenous people as well as the Christian Mission and evangelical witness Furthermore the author goes on to demonstrate that when dialogue is employed peace makes its way in the hearts of the citizens which ushers in the flourishing of good governance and economic growth Hence justice equity peace equal rights and opportunity become the bedrock upon which every nation state is supposed to be founded The Dead of Night Joseph Carl McMullen,1928 The Norman Kingdom of Sicily Donald Matthew,1992-07-30 This book is an introductory account of the kingdom of Sicily established in 1130 by Roger II a Norman king and ruled by Roger his own son and grandsons until 1194 when the kingdom was conquered by his son in law Henry VI of Hohenstaufen The period covered does however extend from Charles of Anjou a period roughly as long and as coherent as the Norman monarchy of England between 1066 and 1204 Roger II s difficulties in creating an enduring kingdom needed continuous military effort Even when these efforts were no longer required the monarchy had still to learn how to function in lands where traditions of local government were strong Yet when the monarchy itself faltered the kingdom did not fall apart Frederick II the grandson of Roger II showed that it could be revived and that his sons could maintain it The ways in which the monarchy made itself indispensable cannot be traced in detail but pointers to its success can be seen The kingdom did not spring full armed at birth it took time and experience to hammer it into shape When at last it looked capable of assuming the leadership of all Italy its enemies combined to prevent it from doing so with the most profound consequences for Italy the papacy and the west

Social Aspects of Memory Alma Jeftic, 2019-05-14 Social Aspects of Memory presents a compelling study of how ordinary people remember war Whilst the book focuses on the cities of Sarajevo and East Sarajevo during the 1992 1995 war in Bosnia Herzegovina Jeftic also presents narratives from other war torn cities and countries around the world This book adopts a unique approach by looking at how perpetrators and victims as well as new generations who may not remember the war directly manage in the aftermath of war Jeftic explores how our memories of war and violence are formed and how we can learn to reconcile those memories individually and as a collective Drawing on the author's own empirical and extensive research the book explores the connection between memories for significant war events transgenerational transmission of memories bias for in group wrongdoings and readiness for reconciliation between two groups Giving a voice to underrepresented narratives and prioritising the importance of expression as a necessary catalyst for reconciliation this book is essential reading for those interested in collective and transgenerational memory and memory studies especially in relation to the aftermath of the 1992 1995 war in Bosnia Herzegovina

Dead Innocent Maureen O'Brien, 1999 Dead Innocent T. J. Bleakley, 2015-01-12 An employee of your firm is dead killed in a motoring accident It was sudden of course and it came as a shock to you You don't know how to deal with it at first he was also a friend and then you learn that two children were in the rear of the van both of which had been recently abducted However bad it looks you know that he's innocent He isn't that type of man You knew him He wasn't like that Business owner Seth Allen sets out to prove the innocence of the recently deceased by uncovering the truth behind the child abductions but the people involved in an incident that happened nearly two decades ago come back on the scene some of which are there to help some of which are looking for revenge Seth is pulled in to a world of crime lies and murder all in the effort to clear a man's name but when a five year old girl goes missing there's more on the line than simply saving the reputation of a man he once helped to rebuild his life
