Flexible Lives Stefanie Reissner, Michal Izak, 2025-08-07 This geographically and methodologically diverse volume shines the spotlight on a variety of flexible working practices beyond the predominantly Western perspective and zooms in on the gendered aspects of flexible working The increasing use of flexible work arrangements has decoupled work from time and space making the world of work and home increasingly fluid and challenging to manage The Covid 19 pandemic in particular has been a catalyst for questioning accepted norms of where when and how work takes place This book seeks to explore the impact which this reshaping of traditional modes of working has had on workplace interactions and relationships as well as on managing the boundaries between familial and working lives In this way this collection contributes to a wider dialogue concerning the flexibility challenges encountered by white collar workers which is needed now more than ever This book will be relevant to scholars practitioners and policymakers in the fields of gender studies organizational behavior human resources and labor economics It will be particularly useful for those examining the impact of remote work the future of work organizational culture and the social and economic implications of shifting work practices The chapters in this book were originally published in Culture and Organization and are accompanied by an updated Introduction and a new Epilogue The Sustainable Digital City Avi

Friedman,2023-04-05 This book explores the rise of technology centered urban planning and the diffusion of these practices around the world Seven axes of urban planning have been selected to highlight how data and technology currently work and how these systems can be improved going forward Each aspect is explored in its own chapter that combines narrative description illustrations and case studies to show how technology currently shapes our cities and how this may impact the urban environments Topics include infrastructure mobility energy use and distribution work public health and knowledge transfer among others The book also demonstrates how these aspects are tied to and affect the four pillars of sustainability environment society economy and culture Effective Small Business Management Norman M. Scarborough,Thomas W.

Zimmerer,Thomas Zimmerer,2003 For courses in Small Business Management Entrepreneurship Starting a New Business Running a Small Business New Venture Management Exceptionally practical this best selling text teaches budding entrepreneurs the hands on tools and techniques for launching and managing a small business the right way and to imbue it with the staying power necessary to succeed and grow in the hotly competitive environment of the 21st century NEW E commerce as a business tool NEW Strategic management NEW Guerrilla marketing techniques NEW Finding sources of financing both equity and debt Relevant practical and interesting material Companion website Numerous real world examples showing how entrepreneurs are using the concepts covered Building and using a business plan Sample business plan for a business Extensive pedagogical features E g learning objectives chapter summaries experiential exercises Multicultural nature of entrepreneurship Important small business topics The Internet cash management techniques the latest on sources of funds both equity and debt sources determining the value of an existing business trends shaping the busin Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society s quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We re delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue s Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world s leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading
