Creative Reading And Writing Lea Learn And Discover:

There's a Writer in Our House! Strategies for Supporting and Encouraging Young Writers and Readers at Home Ann P. Kaganoff, 2024-04-11 There s a Writer in Our House is an invitation to parents of children in first grade through fifth grade interested in actively participating in their children s early literacy learning from the very first steps Founded upon well researched literacy instructional methods that have been informed by the author s clinical perspective as well as her years of experience with many kinds of learners this book provides a valuable understanding of how both writing and reading contribute to child development in multiple areas Chapters provide background concepts regarding grammar and specific critical thinking skills in both writing and reading as well as customizable child centered activities used to practice and build writing and reading comprehension skills You will learn how to advance and encourage your child s learning and communication skills by highlighting important literacy areas such as vocabulary development background knowledge and critical thinking You will also learn to recognize and track the significant developmental achievements of your child as you proceed from the early to the more complex At Home activities as well as receive strategies for how to respond and give feedback in specific situations such as when a child writes something that makes sense to the child but not to the parent how to offer feedback that identifies and labels a child s strengths and how to collaborate effectively with a child who is just developing new interests or a new willingness to try something that previously seemed hard Practical accessible and most importantly fun this book is a must read for all parents regardless of background seeking to support their children s ongoing literacy development confidently and effectively

The Learning and Teaching of Reading and Writing Naomi Flynn, Rhona Stainthorp, 2006-07-11 This book provides a unique description of teacher pupil interaction during the Literacy Hour in good schools It is based on detailed observations in inner city primary schools that were recognised as effective and improving The analysis is informed by contemporary research into the development and teaching of early literacy The book provides practice based examples of how teachers and schools might adapt their delivery for literacy as they move to greater creativity in their teaching of reading and writing The analysis begins within the classrooms of three expert Key Stage 1 teachers and broadens out in to the wider setting of the schools and their senior management teams An important theme running throughout the book is how the three teachers were able to make exceptional provision for their pupils who were largely second language speakers and from socio economically disadvantaged groups The teachers successful practice grew from their understanding of both early literacy development and planning for individual need The information in this book will enable student teachers recently qualified teachers and teachers interested in enhancing their literacy teaching to develop their practice in a similarly successful way
