articles on sustainable and creative cities and addresses modern theories and concepts relating to research on sustainability and creativity. It analyses principles and practices of the creative city for the formulation of policies and recommendations towards the sustainable city. It brings together leading academics with different approaches from different disciplines to provide a comprehensive and holistic overview of creativity and sustainability of the city, linking research and practice. In doing so, it puts forward ideas about stimulating the production of an innovative knowledge for a creative and sustainable city and transforming a specific knowledge into a general common knowledge which suggests best future policy actions, decision making processes and choices for the change towards a human sustainable development of the city.

Cities, Culture and Creativity UNESCO, World Bank (the), 2021-05-25

Culture and creativity have untapped potential to deliver social, economic and spatial benefits for cities and communities. Cultural and creative industries are key drivers of the creative economy and represent important sources of employment, economic growth and innovation, thus contributing to city competitiveness and sustainability. Through their contribution to urban regeneration and sustainable urban development, cultural and creative industries make cities more attractive places for people to live in and for economic activity to develop. Culture and creativity also contribute to social cohesion at the neighborhood level, enable creative networks to form and advance innovation and growth, and create opportunities for those who are often socially and economically excluded. The ongoing COVID 19 pandemic has had a deep impact on the cultural sector, yet it has also revealed the power of cultural and creative industries as a resource for city recovery and resilience. More generally, cities are hubs of the creative economy and have a critical role to play in harnessing the transformative potential of cultural and creative industries through policies and enabling environments at the local level.

Cities, Culture and Creativity CCC provides guiding principles and a CCC Framework developed by UNESCO and the World Bank to support cities in unlocking the power of cultural and creative industries for sustainable urban development, city competitiveness and social inclusion. Drawing from global studies and the experiences of nine diverse cities from across the world, the CCC Framework offers concrete guidance for the range of actors: city state and national governments, creative industry and related private sector organizations, creatives, culture professionals and civil society to harness culture and creativity with a view to boosting their local creative economies and building resilient, inclusive and dynamic cities.

Cultural Heritage Education in the Everyday Landscape Camilla Casonato, Bertrando Bonfantini, 2022-12-01

This book summarizes work being undertaken within the School Activates Resources stitching the lost heritage of the suburbs. ScAR project which addressed cultural heritage in a broad sense as a system of values identified by the populations and in constant evolution. This tangible and intangible heritage fuels the promotion of intergenerational and intercultural dialogue and represents an opportunity for resilient social and territorial development. The book ponders the experience gained and the points of view of the different disciplines involved, examines issues such as children and youth participation in civil life or education in cultural heritage and landscape and presents real world experiences of heritage.

education in everyday landscape in difficult contexts and or concerning poorly recognized and valued cultural heritage

Culture, Innovation and the Green Economy Biljana Mickov, 2025-06-25 The book offers a theoretical and practical analysis of the contemporary approach to art culture and innovation with special emphasis on the relationship between culture innovation and the economy in the context of green transition as an indispensable sustainability factor It presents new models that can be implemented especially within strategic cultural planning serving to ensure future development and attain certain levels of stability The book argues that the cultural ecosystem should not be treated as merely a segment of the economy but rather as a system that contains the economy One of the main issues covered in the book is climate change More than fifty years have passed since the first major conference of the United Nations UN on the Environment held in Stockholm in 1972 which gave birth to the Stockholm Declaration and also cemented the global environmental movement Thanks to Agenda 2030 the 17 Sustainable Development Goals and the Paris Agreement there is an increased awareness of the dangers posed by climate change and of the need to switch to sustainable energy sources and a circular economy in the hope of preventing environmental problems that threaten life on Earth Each chapter provides an accessible bank of knowledge on which existing theory and practice can be developed and new projects undertaken The book adopts a highly interdisciplinary approach for open science bridging theoretical insights with practical applications and offers a comprehensive perspective that is both informative and actionable so it can be used by academics researchers policy makers and cultural professionals for planning and development within the cultural sector Biljana Mickov is a cultural researcher and professor She holds a PhD from University of Reims Champagne Ardenne
