Davis,2018-01-13 The small city of Brooks Glen is shaken to its knees after a burned body is found in one of its churches and another church is burned to the ground What do the Creatures of the Forest have to do with these events Can anything stop them Facing down a mad man with a gun Pastor Steve puts his faith in the Truth This Christian mystery thriller is packed with twists and turns that will keep you turning the page chapter after chapter Excerpt There was something special about these two ladies Whenever Harriet was with them the Creatures of the Forest had to stay quiet They tried several times to interfere with Harriet s mind They could tell this outing wasn t good It even caused some arguments among the Fearlings

Some said they should call for Despair to come Others said Harriet belonged to them and they didn't want to share Thankfully she was blissfully unaware of the debate Caroline dropped Harriet off at her house and it was dark in the living room when she entered Shadows cast an eerie darkness in the corners Little did Harriet know she was walking into a trap Memories of her attacker flooded her mind Fear was attacking with all of his might Someone is here Look in that corner See You're alone with no one to help you You never should have left the house Now someone is here and you will never escape Never escape Never escape Harriet's mind began to spin How could she be so foolish as to leave her house It was a foolish thing to do leaving the house It wasn't safe It wasn't safe Never do that again I'll never do that again It isn't safe I have no safe place Where can I go No I can't go outside With her heart beating faster and faster she spun around the room looking in every corner After the living room she entered the rest of the house checking every closet and under all of the beds Finally after she was certain no one was there she plopped down on her couch and dissolved into tears I can't go on living this way she thought Feeling completely exhausted after so much emotion she fell into a fitful sleep About midnight she awoke and realized she had fallen asleep completely dressed curled up on the couch Her back ached and her eyes smarted from crying Shuffling to the bathroom she heard a noise just outside her window What was that She wondered Then another sound and then another Each more scary than the one before The Fearlings were having fun dropping pinecones on Harriet's roof They knew just the reaction they could get She was so afraid and yet one word kept coming to her mind Jesus she cried Help me
