Crime Emerging Issues:

Crime : Emerging Issues Harvey A. Siegal, James A. Inciardi, 1977      Serious Fraud and Current Issues Sally Ramage, 2005 Fraud is big business and it rots the fabric of finance and accountancy as it is exercised by all day trading of bonds junk bonds loans Twenty five years ago fraud was said to be rapidly expanding and manifests itself by shady deals fraudulently converted cash Fraudsters who are active especially electronic fraud do in fact treat the use of fraud as serious business and the execution of frauds as work much as other criminals treat their activities as their job Identity theft poses a frightening threat of being taken in by crooks If twenty five years ago it was estimated that the amount of fraudulent cash around the world at any one time more than equalled the Gross National Products of several third world countries it would not be believed a damning indictment indeed In this fascinating and comprehensive study on Fraud the author takes advantage of the fact that people seem thrilled to hear about frauds like murders She has prepared works that will use the reader s attention to discuss law enforcement and the consequences of breaking the law by committing frauds

Contemporary Issues in the Empirical Study of Crime Marc Cools, 2009 In today s globalized society an international exchange of ideas and views is indispensable within the field of social sciences including criminology and criminal justice studies The research group Governance of Security GofS fosters contemporary international discourses on issues of crime and crime control In 2008 GofS started a research paper series combining theoretical and empirical articles on issues reflecting the research activities of GofS This research group is a collaboration between Ghent University and Ghent University College in Belgium GofS concentrates its research around the study of administrative and judicial policy that have been developed with respect to new issues of crime and insecurity The GofS series Governance of Security Research Papers GofS is published by Maklu Publishing Belgium Contemporary Issues in the Empirical Study of Crime Volume 1 of GofS s series Governance of Security Research Papers includes the following Drugs and Crime Are They Hand in Glove A Review of Literature The Study of Public Expenditure on Drugs A Useful Evaluation Tool for Policy Corporations as a Blind Spot in Research Explanations for a Criminological Tunnel Vision The Nominal Group Technique A Participative Research Technique Holding Great Potential for Criminology Analytical Criminology A Style of Theorizing and Analyzing the Micro Macro Context of Acts of Crime The Geography of Social Cohesion and Crime at the Municipality Level Disentangling Neighbourhood and School Contextual Variation in Serious Offending Assessing the Effect of Ecological Disadvantage Itinerant Crime Groups Mobility Attributed to Anchor Points Patterns of Drug Use Before During and After Detention A Review of Epidemiological Literature      Crime in America Jay S. Albanese, Robert D. Pursley, 1993 This text examines the most pressing issues in criminal justice today including the economic based crimes of white collar crime computer crime and the evolving nature of organized crime addresses issues affecting the political order including domestic terrorism corruption and environmental offenses and deals with issues affecting the social order including youth gangs narcotics and crimes involving the family

Historical background is provided in each chapter to demonstrate how many of these problems have existed in some form for quite a while and actual cases are used to illustrate principles For criminologists sociologists and all those interested in criminal justice sociology and public administration issues      Penal Culture and Hyperincarceration Chris

Cunneen,Eileen Baldry,David Brown,Mark Brown,Melanie Schwartz,Alex Steel,2016-05-13 What are the various forces influencing the role of the prison in late modern societies What changes have there been in penalty and use of the prison over the past 40 years that have led to the re valorization of the prison Using penal culture as a conceptual and theoretical vehicle and Australia as a case study this book analyses international developments in penalty and imprisonment Authored by some of Australia s leading penal theorists the book examines the historical and contemporary influences on the use of the prison with analyses of colonialism post colonialism race and what they term the penal colonial complex in the construction of imprisonment rates and on the development of the phenomenon of hyperincarceration The authors develop penal culture as an explanatory framework for continuity change and difference in prisons and the nature of contested penal expansionism The influence of transformative concepts such as risk management the therapeutic prison and preventative detention are explored as aspects of penal culture Processes of normalization transmission and reproduction of penal culture are seen throughout the social realm Comparative contemporary and historical in its approach the book provides a new analysis of penalty in the 21st century      Emerging Issues in Bankruptcy Litigation ,1992      Chasing Criminal Money Katalin

Ligeti,Michele Simonato,2017-04-06 The fight against dirty money is not a new topic nor a recent problem It has existed within international and national agendas since the 1980s Nonetheless the evolving complexity of criminal skills and networks the increasingly global dimension of crime the financial crisis and the alleged unsatisfactory results of the efforts hitherto undertaken cause us to re pose and re discuss some questions This book addresses several issues concerning the reasons objectives and scope of national and supranational strategies targeting criminal money as well as the concrete modalities to overcome its obstacles The main objective is to explore where the EU stands and where it ought to go providing useful input for policy makers and further research Nevertheless the problems are not limited to the EU area and assets particularly money cross EU borders much more easily than people do The reflections developed in the chapters therefore aim at going beyond these EU borders The book is divided into two parts The first one focuses on the core of asset recovery policies namely confiscation or forfeiture laws and explores in particular some issues concerning the respect of fundamental rights The second part addresses other problematic aspects related to the asset recovery process such as the return of assets to victim countries the cross border investigations on dirty money and the social use of confiscated assets      Emerging

Issues in Child Psychiatry and the Law Diane H. Schetky,Elissa P. Benedek,1985      Organized Crime Klaus von Lampe,2015-07-16 2016 Outstanding Publication Award The International Association for the Study of Organized Crime Organized Crime Analyzing Illegal Activities Criminal Structures and Extra legal Governance provides a systematic overview of the processes and structures commonly labeled organized crime drawing on the pertinent empirical and theoretical literature primarily from North America Europe and Australia The main emphasis is placed on a comprehensive classificatory scheme that highlights underlying patterns and dynamics rather than particular historical manifestations of organized crime Esteemed author Klaus von Lampe strategically breaks the book down into three key dimensions 1 illegal activities 2 patterns of interpersonal relations that are directly or indirectly supporting these illegal activities and 3 overarching illegal power structures that regulate and control these illegal activities and also extend their influence into the legal spheres of society Within this framework numerous case studies and topical issues from a variety of countries illustrate meaningful application of the conceptual and theoretical discussion Emerging Issues in State Constitutional Law ,1990 Contemporary Issues in Criminal Justice Arizona State University,United States. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration,1976 Many of these ideas were first presented at a national symposium in criminal law at Arizona State University in 1974 under the auspices of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration Current Issues in Victimology Research Laura J. Moriarty,Robert A. Jerin,1998 Research on crime victims issues is a relatively new phenomenon in the criminal justice field With the birth of victimology in the late 1940s and early 1950s research focused on victim offender relationships and victim culpability It has only been in the last few decades that researchers have both studied the effects of crime upon the victim and analyzed the services provided to the crime victim Moriarty and Jerin provide an understanding of the impact of the criminal act upon individuals and society through recent research The book provides the criminal justice field with a foundation for grasping the complexities of crime victimization Current Issues in Victimology Research is a collection of sixteen original articles written by criminal justice academics and practitioners The book is arranged into sections including fear of crime campus victimization victim services and representation victims rights versus offenders rights and sexual harassment and stalking Unlike most other victimology books which are written as textbooks this book is a volume of the most recent research conducted by academic scholars in the field focusing on current issues in victimology Police and Emerging Challenges Shailendra Kumar Chaturvedi,1988 Contributed articles with reference to India Contemporary Issues in Canadian Policing Stephen Emmanuel Nancoo,2004 Focuses on the important challenges facing the police and the community Part I articulates two views of public policing policing as force and policing as risk minimization Part II examines the new paradigm of community policing and outlines the principles and practices of a made in Canada community policing model Part III looks at the critical issues of the police subculture ethics and technology Part IV discusses human resources issues of managing diversity women in policing and the recruitment and promotion of visible minorities and aboriginal people Part V features operational issues such as public order interrogation the use of force police discretion and transnational policing Part VI explores trends and prospects in the 21st century and the challenges of globalization terrorism national security racial profiling organizational performance measurement and the public policing private security debate Current Issues in
