Glensor,Kenneth J. Peak,Mark E. Correia,2000 Introduces students to the field of Community Oriented Policing and Problem Solving COPPS This book emphasizes the role that the community plays in developing effective strategies for controlling and preventing crime methods the police are using to examine the context of crime and procedures that agencies are using to implement COPPS Understanding Policy Implementation Zondi Masiza,Libhongo Ntlokonkulu,2001 Journal of Contemporary Criminal Justice ,1993 Advances in Criminological Theory Freda Adler,William S. Laufer,1989 Books in Print ,1994 African-American Perspectives on Crime Causation, Criminal Justice Administration, and Crime Prevention Anne Thomas Sulton,1996 Fifteen articles written by African American criminologists respond to urban crime and policies to control it The contributors examine the status of African American scholars in the field of criminal justice and consider some of the historical reasons for contemporary escalation of crime and delinquency on a political and psychological level The investigations also offer insights and potential solutions to the problems of drugs gang violence police brutality AIDS and the death penalty Annotation copyright by Book

News Inc Portland OR Harm in American Penology Todd R. Clear,1994 This book analyzes the sources and results of the fourfold increase in the U S correctional population since 1970 It considers the following themes the value of punitiveness defined as penal harm research on crime and criminals concerns about victims of crime and concerns about community safety It also analyzes the relationship between social problems such as poverty and crime and penal policy during the twenty year period of penal expansion The book concludes that the growth in corrections was not caused by crime nor has it reduced crime and that proposals for expanding incarceration cannot be justified The Criminal Justice System James Fredrick Hodgson,1998 North America s obsession with the control of criminals has led to the expenditure of more than one hundred billion dollars per year on police courts and prisons This criminal control industry has grown at the expense of strategies aimed at reducing crime In The Criminal Justice System Alternative Measures nine outstanding critics of the crime control industry present alternatives to the existing criminal justice system The main theme of the collection is that crime is a community problem and that solutions to the occurrence of crime lie within the community The collection is intended for sociologists criminologists social workers and others who study the justice system or work within it Criminal Justice Newsletter ,1993 Criminal Law Forum ,1992 Effective Policing? S. Kirby,2013-09-20 This book provides a unique insight into the way policing is performed By embracing both organizational management issues as well as operational police business such as crime reduction and detection firearms disorder organised crime and terrorism it provides a comprehensive overview of contemporary police theory and practice CJ International ,1993 Seen and Heard Australia. Law Reform Commission,1997 The Inquiry s terms of reference were concerned with issues surrounding children s participation within the legal process The Inquiry was not concerned with the substance of the laws rights or entitlements of children within these processes except as these relate to the processes themselves The focus of the Inquiry on a broad range of legal processes enabled consideration of children s involvement in these processes from a national perspective This focus permitted a wide and detailed examination of legal processes in different jurisdictions the relationships between these processes and across portfolios and the consequences of children s involvement in one or more of the processes In some areas the legal processes examined were within State and Territory jurisdictions Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 Handbook of Loss Prevention and Crime Prevention Lawrence J. Fennelly,1989 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997
