

How to Implement better Criminal Justice Planning

- The “community” needs to send a consistent and powerful message to unconvinced or wavering politicians that reducing the Prison population and providing alternatives is what we want (the DA and Judiciary)
- Get the new District Attorney to implement a new charging policy based on past data from the Prison
- The Criminal Justice Advisory Board needs to immediately hire a coordinator and related staff
- Establish the number and type of inmates held at the Prison and commit to not building any new prisons
- Commit to reducing length of stay (LOS) from 90 days to 60 days
- Commit to closing the House of Correction (HOC)
- Use the money saved from reducing LOS and closing HOC to:
 - Reduce the City’s budgetary commitments
 - Generally investing in anything that speeds up the time it takes to adjudicate a case
 - Invest in diversionary programs, i.e. Community Court, Day Reporting
 - Expand Drug Court
 - Expand Mental Health Court
 - Invest in increased Probation and Parole staff to help reduce recidivism
 - Set up monitoring system for bail guidelines
