Data-Driven Innovation in the Creative Industries Melissa Terras,Vikki Jones,Nicola Osborne,Chris Speed,2024-04-17 The creative industries the place where art business and technology meet in economic activity have been hugely affected by the relatively recent digitalisation and often monetisation of work home relationships and leisure Such trends were accelerated by the global COVID 19 pandemic This edited collection examines how the creative industries can be supported to make best use of opportunities in digital technology and data driven innovation Since digital markets and platforms are now essential for revenue generation and audience engagement there is a vital need for improved data and digital skills in the creative and cultural sectors Taking a necessarily global perspective this book explores the challenges and opportunities of data driven approaches to creativity in different contexts across the arts cultural and heritage sectors Chapters reach beyond the platforms and approaches provided by the technology sector to delve into the collaborative work that supports innovation around the interdisciplinary and cross sectoral issues that emerge where data infrastructures and approaches meet creativity A novel intervention that uniquely centres the role of data in the theory and practice of creative industries innovation this book is valuable reading for those researching and studying the creative economy as well for those who drive investment for the creative industries in a digitalised society The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license

Modern Methods in Neuroethology Bart R. H. Geurten,Emily Baird,Ralf Heinrich,2022-07-12 Sustainable Development and the Digital Economy Mohammad Nabil Almunawar,Patricia Ordóñez de Pablos,Muhammad Anshari,2023-10-06 The advancement of technology such as data analytics and artificial intelligence AI has led to the birth of Industry 4.0 in which technology seems to be the centre of development. However, as the Covid-19 pandemic created havoc, the entire world production chain has been seriously affected, highlighting that machines alone, although fully connected and automated, cannot function without people. This book addresses the pillars of moving towards Industry 5.0 for sustainable development, drawing on examples from Asia. As Asian nations are moving fast toward the digital economy, this edited collection offers new perspectives on understanding emerging business opportunities as well as the challenges faced. Chapters span the three pillars of Industry 5.0: human centricity, sustainability, and resilience, and includes topics related to people management for creating wealth, technology advancements in supporting creativity, resilience, and agility of organisations, as well as the important issue of sustainability in future industrial development. With rich empirical studies from leading researchers, this book will be a reference for academics and scholars across business disciplines including information technology and innovation management, organisational and strategic management, as well as those interested in industrial development and sustainability.
