A Research Agenda for Flexible Working Arrangements Lilian M. de Menezes, Clare Kelliher, 2025-10-07 Bringing together leading international researchers this Research Agenda adeptly navigates the evolving landscape of flexible working arrangements and identifies potential avenues for further research The Routledge Companion to Mental Health at Work Arla Day, Cary L. Cooper, 2023-10-12 The issue of mental health at work has become a hot topic in both the popular media and academic writings Although job stress and mental ill health are associated with negative outcomes for individuals teams and organizations there has been some suggestion that changing the work environment and creating healthy workplaces can improve worker health Much of the current works in the general of health is fractured coming from a variety of disciplines and perspectives without an organizing framework to help guide research and practice in the area Having this individualized compartmentalized perspective constrains our ability to fully understand the scope of the issue the key factors in supporting or detracting from one's mental health and interventions focusing on mental health at work Given the importance of understanding mental health at work and the current lack of coverage on workplace mental health there is a need for a book to provide a holistic overview of the issue targeting the environmental individual and group influences of mental health and well being as well as the impact on individuals and workplaces This handbook provides a conceptual framework for examining these issues Each chapter offers an in depth examination of the key facets of mental health at work focusing both on the seminal and current literature on the topic and practical suggestions for best practices for organizations With contributions from leading experts authors address the state of the art research and integrate current events that are shaping the way we work and our wellbeing at work This edited collection will be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and advanced students in the fields of human resource management organizational psychology and management European Narratives on Remote Working and Coworking During the COVID-19 Pandemic Mina Akhavan, Marco Hölzel, Divya Leducq, 2023-05-02 This open access book offers a multidisciplinary and comprehensive perspective regarding the immediate and long term effects of the Covid 19 pandemic on coworking spaces in the European Region The current pandemic has imposed several effects on work and spaces for work Some are immediate effects and will last for a short time such as the closing down of the space some will last longer namely the reorganisation of the space to meet the physical distancing and some will stay for a long time remote working and hybrid working Although the literature on coworking spaces and the effects of the pandemic is growing fast empirical studies are yet limited Within this context this book seeks a twofold aim i to contribute to the fast growing literature on coworking space and their effects at different scales ii to present a multidisciplinary perspective about the effects of the yet lasting Corona pandemic effects on the patterns of remote working and consequently on coworking spaces as the most diffused form of new working spaces The Routledge Handbook of Home Elaine Stratford, Katie Walsh, 2025-11-19 This global critical and interdisciplinary handbook rethinks home as a material emotional and geopolitical site It examines housing displacement domesticity climate care and the intimate labours subjectivities and practices of home Across diverse contexts and with varied perspectives including feminist queer and decolonial approaches the handbook chapters challenge romanticised ideals and illuminate home's inequalities exclusions and possibilities Spanning 46 chapters across four parts Theorising Home Housing and Home Domesticities and Everyday Life and Global Challenges and Home Futures this handbook blends conceptual innovation with grounded research It offers global case studies theoretical depth and pedagogical tools on home's entanglements with law human rights ecology technology violence and more making it indispensable for critical scholarship teaching and practice Designed for a broad audience this handbook supports undergraduate learning graduate teaching and advanced research It equips scholars educators activists policymakers and practitioners with essential insights and resources to engage with home as a site of power identity and struggle in a rapidly changing world
