Foreign Correspondence John Maxwell Hamilton, Regina G. Lawrence, 2013-09-13 Despite the importance of foreign news its history transformation and indeed its future have not been much studied The scholarly community often calls attention to journalism s shortcomings covering the world yet the topic has not been systematically examined across countries or over time The need to redress this neglect and the desire to assess the impact of new media technologies on the future of journalism including foreign correspondence provide the motivation for this stimulating exciting and thought provoking book While the old economic models supporting news have crumbled in the wake of new media technologies these changes have the potential to bring new and improved ways to inform people of foreign news In an increasingly globalized era journalism is being transformed by the effortlessly quick sharing of information across national boundaries As such we need to reconsider foreign correspondence and explore where such reporting is headed This book discusses the current state and future prospects for foreign correspondence across the full range of media platforms and assesses developments in the reporting of overseas news for audiences governments and foreign policy in both contemporary and historical settings around the globe As Emmy Award and Pulitzer Prize winning correspondent Serge Schmemmann reminds us in this book quality journalism and unbiased reporting are as valid and necessary today as they ever were one of the primary tasks of journalists and scholars as they follow the changes taking place must be to ensure that the new international information order now imposed by the Internet remains true to the ideals and traditions that define our journalism This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Studies

The Place Economy - Volume 2 Andrew Hoyne, 2023-05-12 In Volume 2 of The Place Economy our attention travels from the macro to the micro from nations to neighbourhoods countries to communities Close to 60 experts from eight different countries explore what can be achieved via high quality visioning placemaking planning and design We examine how spaces are used analysing the things required to meet community needs from residents and visitors to commercial entities and private individuals We give detailed attention to the role place branding plays in enhancing outcomes at all levels and discover the various skills and disciplines required when creating destinations that meet the needs of different people across various geographic and cultural places

Disruption and Digital Journalism John V. Pavlik, 2021-10-06 This book offers a timely insight into how the news media have adapted to the digital transformation of public communication infrastructure Providing a conceptual roadmap to understanding the disruptive innovative impact of digital networked journalism in the 21st century the author critically examines how and to what extent news media around the world have engaged in digital adaptation Making use of data from news media content production and distribution both off and online as well as user and financial data from the U S and internationally the book traces how the news media embraced and reacted to key developments such as the invention of the World Wide Web in 1989 and the launch of Google in 1998 Facebook in 2004 and the Apple iPhone in 2009 The author also highlights innovative organizations that have sought to
