Creativity And Tradition In Folklore:

Creativity and Tradition in Folklore Simon J. Bronner, 1992 Taken together these stimulating case studies and philosophical essays are a moving statement for understanding human expressiveness in a new way Folklore Concepts Dan Ben-Amos, 2020-09-01 By defining folklore as artistic communication in small groups Dan Ben Amos led the discipline of Folklore in new directions In Folklore Concepts Henry Glassie and Elliott Oring have curated a selection of Ben Amos's groundbreaking essays that explore folklore as a category in cultural communication and as a subject of scholarly research Ben Amos's work is well known for sparking lively debate that often centers on why his definition intrinsically acknowledges tradition rather than expresses its connection forthright Without tradition among people there would be no art or communication and tradition cannot accomplish anything on its own only people can Ben Amos's focus on creative communication in communities is woven into the themes of the theoretical essays in this volume through which he advocates for a better future for folklore scholarship Folklore Concepts traces Ben Amos's consistent efforts over the span of his career to review and critique the definitions, concepts and practices of Folklore in order to build the field's intellectual history In examining this history Folklore Concepts answers foundational questions about what folklorists are doing how they are doing it and why Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman, 2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate Tradition and creativity: Education, art, folklore, game József Zelnik, 1982 Tradition in the Twenty-First Century Trevor J. Blank, Robert Glenn Howard, 2013-05-15 In Tradition in the Twenty First Century eight diverse contributors explore the role of tradition in contemporary folkloristics For more than a century folklorists have been interested in locating sources of tradition and accounting for the conceptual boundaries of tradition but in the modern era expanded means of communication research and travel along with globalized cultural and economic interdependence have complicated these pursuits Tradition is thoroughly embedded in both modern life and at the center of folklore studies and a modern understanding of tradition cannot be fully realized without a thoughtful consideration of the past's role in shaping the present Emphasizing how tradition adapts survives thrives and either mutates or remains stable in today's modern world the contributors pay specific attention to how traditions now resist or expedite dissemination and adoption by individuals and communities This complex and intimate portrayal of tradition in the twenty first century offers a comprehensive overview of the folkloristic and popular conceptualizations of tradition from the past to present and presents a thoughtful assessment and projection of how tradition will fare in years to come The book will be useful to advanced undergraduate or graduate courses in folklore and will contribute significantly to the scholarly literature on tradition within the folklore discipline Additional Contributors Simon Bronner Stephen Olbrys Gencarella Merrill Kaplan Lynne S McNeill Elliott Oring Casey R Schmitt and Tok Thompson
