Resources in Education, 1994 Fostering Creativity A. J. Cropley, David Cropley, 2009 Innovation is universally recognized as key components of first world economies that is vital for continued prosperity Innovation is driven by the generation of effective novelty in other words creativity However both in higher education and also in business and industry insufficient effort is being made to encourage and develop creativity with negative consequences for innovation This is partly due to inadequate understanding of what creativity is and how it can be fostered This book draws on complementary views of creativity and innovation as a business process and as a social psychological model to create a more detailed and more highly differentiated model which is capable of serving as a practical foundation for diagnosing analyzing optimizing and fostering creativity and innovation in a variety of organizational settings It is built around a large number of case studies and down to earth examples and offers many concrete suggestions for fostering what the authors call functional creativity
