Creativity And Contradiction European Churches Since 1970:

Creativity and Contradiction Randall S. Lindstrom, 1988 Evaluates church building projects in Europe completed between 1965 and 1984 An Architecture of Immanence Mark A. Torgerson, 2007-01-22 Torgerson begins by discussing God's transcendence and immanence and showing how church architecture has traditionally interpreted these key concepts He then traces the theological roots of immanence's priority from liberal theology and liturgical innovation to modern architecture Next Torgerson illustrates this new architecture of immanence through particular practitioners focusing especially on the work of theologically savvy architect Edward Anders Svik Finally he addresses the future of church architecture as congregations are buffeted by the twin forces of liturgical change and postmodernism Sacred Buildings Rudolf Stegers, 2008-05-16 The building of religious structures represents a rare opportunity for the architect to concentrate on the creation of volume space and form Sacred architecture is far less determined than other building tasks by functional requirements norms and standards As a rule it is free to unfold as pure architecture Thus in design terms this building task offers enormous freedoms to the architect At the same time however the special atmospherics of sacred spaces call on the part of the architect for a highly sensitive treatment of religion and the relevant cultural and architectural traditions In a systematic section this volume introduces the design technical and planning fundamentals of building churches synagogues and mosques In its project section it also presents about seventy realized structures from the last three decades Drawing upon his in depth knowledge of the subject and his many years of publishing experience the author offers a valuable analysis of the conceptual and formal aspects that combine to create the religious impact of spaces e.g. the ground plan the shapes of the spaces the incidence of light and materiality The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Volume 1 (A-D) Erwin Fahlbusch, Jan Lochman, John Mbiti, Jaroslav Pelikan, Lukas Vischer, 2025-04-14 A major intellectual resource Jaroslav Pelikan from the foreword The multiple award winning Encyclopedia of Christianity EC copublished by Brill and Eerdmans is a monumental five volume work presenting the history and current state of the Christian faith in its rich spiritual and theological diversity around the world Volume 1 A-D contains 465 articles featuring articles on all but the smallest countries of the world including the former communist nations that have gained independence since 1989 the latest statistical information from David B Barrett on the religious affiliation and ecclesiastical breakdown of each country and continent articles on doctrines denominations and social and ethical issues in relation to the churches biographical articles on prominent figures through church history The Encyclopedia of Christianity is also available online The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 This multifaceted and up to date encyclopedia is sure to be of interest to pastors and church workers of all confessions equally so to students scholars and researchers around the world who are interested in any aspect of Christianity or religion in general The first volume contains 465 articles that address a comprehensive list of topics Faith & Form, 1986 New SCM Dictionary of Liturgy and Worship Paul F.
