Sage Professional Papers in International Studies Series ,1974      Global Human Rights Ved P.

Nanda,2019-04-05 Written in response to the increasingly conscious effort to develop human rights on a universal scale this seminal volume focuses on three distinct areas of human rights public policy criteria for comparative assessment and NGO nongovernmental organization strategies The contributors amplify and clarify what has been done in the sphere of hum

Expert-generated Data Gerald W. Hopple,2020-12-17 In the aftermath of the explosion of hard data sets in the 1960s for the study of international relations there has been a movement back toward the use of various experts to quantify the more elusive aspects of the international situation These aspects range from the beliefs and perceptions of decision makers to the array of stresses that confront nation states both internally and externally This volume reflects the most recent and innovative work in the use of data generated by academic policy and other experts The authors discuss expert generated data as a means of data making data refinement and policy analysis They present all of the major expert based approaches and offer a variety of methodological and substantive applications      International Event-data Developments Richard L.

Merritt,R. G. Muncaster,Dina A. Zinnes,1993 Up to the minute information on the collection and analysis of international event data      The Road to War in Iraq: Comparative Foreign Policy Analysis Chris Featherstone,2025-04-09 This book combines three Foreign Policy Analysis FPA models to explain both how and why the US and UK decided to invade Iraq in 2003 These three FPA models each examine a different but closely related aspect of the individual level of decision making Firstly Groupthink examines how pathologies of small group decision making affected the processes in the US and UK decision to invade Iraq Secondly the Leadership Style framework examines how the individual leader s style of exercising their leadership affected the navigation of the decision making process Thirdly analogical reasoning examines how decision makers frame their actions both in their own decision making and in how they present their decision to the wider public By achieving these objectives The Road to War contributes to the field of FPA and to our understanding of how the decision to invade Iraq was taken The comparative use of these FPA models within a single framework means that this book responds to the calls for multifactorial research within FPA proposing and testing a framework that provides more complex answers through adopting a multifactorial framework These more nuanced complex answers then reveal more about the role of the individuals involved in the decision to invade Iraq and how their cognition affected the process that led to the decision to invade      CREON : A foreign events data set Charles F. Hermann,1973      The Globus Model Stuart A

Bremer,2019-09-06 This is a collection of independent works on the GLOBUS model A first and basic application of the GLOBUS model was made through the computation of its standard run for the years 1970 2010 Stated in the simplest possible terms GLOBUS is a computer simulation model of many important macropolitical and macroeconomic relationships within and among 25 prominent contemporary nations plus a rest of world entity It is designed and used to explore possible solutions to long term global problems      Exploration of International Relations Data Sigrid Unseld,1997 Describes the development of a prototype system that assists users in exploring domain specific data The book concentrates on the role of object oriented programming in addressing technical problems that evolve around data representation and analyses Exploration of International Relations Data deals with different data structures across data sets defines efficient operations for different data matches data format with the data requirements of analysis techniques and provides a convenient and easy to use interface It illustrates the potential of an object oriented approach with the respect to data handling and analysis extensibility Sigrid Unseld s objective throughout the text is to help facilitate the modification and extension of existing data exploration systems to enable users to build new systems tailored to their needs      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1977      International Studies Notes ,1995      International Yearbook of Foreign Policy Studies Patrick J Macgowan,1975-11-01      Monographic Series Library of Congress,      Measuring International Behavior Don Munton,1978      Sage Professional Papers in American Politics ,1973      Origins of National Interests Glenn Chafetz,Benjamin Frankel,Michael Spirtaz,2012-10-12 The concept of identity in international relations offers too many vague and imprecise definitions of the concepts that stand at its very core This text offers clear definitions of the concept of identity and the concepts surrounding the term      State Data Program University of California, Berkeley.
