Cries Of A Troubled Heart:

Cries of a Troubled Heart Jeremy Holtzel, 2005-07 Sometimes the conventional use of words is not enough to capture life and all its complexities Sometimes pain cannot be expressed in screams or cries of sorrow Poetry is the only hope of a broken soul to express the torment of life and the pain each day brings Jeremy used the gift of poetry to express his inner most feelings and fears This compilation of lyrical verses became his way of dealing with the world in which he found himself The mistakes he made and the problems of his past are all brought to the surface in an effort to rebuild his life and reshape a future he once thought lost Through his words he has found solace and hope Cries of a Troubled Heart is a poetic look at a life gripped by the destruction of physical abuse mental abuse and drug abuse Each poem is an inside look at the crippling affects life can have when it spirals out of control never hitting rock bottom just driving further and further into the abyss
