Crime In The Making Pathways And Turning Points Through Life:

Crime in the Making Robert J. Sampson, John H. Laub, 1995 Based on the re analysis of Sheldon and Eleanor Gluecks mid century study of 500 delinquents and 500 non delinquents from childhood to adulthood this informal social control theory accepts the importance of childhood behaviour but rejects the idea that a

American Libraries May 2003 Advances in Criminological Theory ,1989 Highs & Lows Lorraine Greaves,Nancy Poole,2007 Women s and girls substance use is an important health economic and social issue in Canada However most books about alcohol and other drug use do not address the unique needs and circumstances of this population Highs Lows draws on the latest theory and research to offer strategies for improving practice and developing policy to support women with substance use problems This unique book includes contributions from nearly 100 experts on women s substance use including psychiatrists psychologists social workers clinical therapists health promoters academics alternative health care providers women s health advocates and women who have personally been affected by substance use The book includes in depth chapters on the interconnection of trauma mental health and substance use problems for women pregnancy mothering and substance use innovative treatment harm reduction and prevention programs designed with women s needs in mind challenges and opportunities for improved research treatment and policy development Highs Lows also includes snapshots of the latest in women centred research treatment and policy innovations statistics on women s substance use in Canada women s personal narratives of their experiences of substance use problems Highs Lows is a valuable resource for program developers and administrators researchers and policy makers therapists and counsellors and educators and students It is an ideal choice as a course text on this topic Highs Lows was developed through a partnership between the British Columbia Centre of Excellence for Women s Health and the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health Positive Support Shawn Bauldry,2006 Examines potential benefits of matching high risk youth with faith based mentors drawing on surveys and interviews with young people who participated in the National Faith Based Initiative and concludes with a consideration of the challenges of implementing a mentoring program for high risk youth The Price of Independence Sheldon Danziger,Cecilia Elena Rouse,2007 More and more young men and women today are taking longer and having more difficulty making a successful transition to adulthood They are staying in school longer having a harder time finding steady employment at jobs that provide health insurance and are not marrying and having children until much later in life than their parents did In The Price of Independence a roster of distinguished experts diagnose the extent and causes of these trends Observers of social trends have speculated on the economic changes that may be delaying the transition to adulthood from worsening job opportunities to mounting student debt and higher housing costs but few have offered empirical evidence to back up their claims The Price of Independence represents the first significant analysis of these economic explanations charting the evolving life circumstances of eighteen to thirty five year olds over the last few decades Lisa Bell Gary Burtless Janet Gornick and Timothy M Smeeding show that the earnings of young workers in the United States and a number of industrialized countries have declined relative to the cost of supporting a family which may explain their protracted dependence In addition Henry Farber finds that job stability for young male workers has dropped over the last generation But while economic factors have some influence on young people s transitions to adulthood The Price of Independence shows that changes in the economic climate can not account for the magnitude of the societal shift in the timing of independent living marriage and childbearing Aaron Yelowitz debunks the myth that steep housing prices are forcing the young to live at home housing costs actually fell between 1980 and 2000 once lower interest rates and tax subsidies are taken into account And Ngina Chiteji reveals that average student loan debt is only 3 500 per household The trend toward starting careers and families later appears to have more to do with changing social norms as well as policies that have broadened access to higher education than with changes in the economy For better or worse the current generation is redefining the nature and boundaries of what it means to be a young adult The Price of Independence documents just how dramatically the modern lifecycle has changed and offers evidence as an antidote to much of the conventional wisdom about these social changes

Women and the Criminal Justice System Katherine S. Van Wormer, Clemens Bartollas, 2007 This text examines the various roles of women in the criminal justice system against a social context in which women are oppressed The text examines the following three roles of women in criminal justice Women as victims of crimes Women as criminals convicted and sentenced for crimes Women as workers in various agencies in the criminal justice system This text emphasizes content on gender and ethnic diversity and on the strengths of oppressed people especially women of color A wide range of issues are covered including the rate of early childhood sexual abuse victimization in female inmates priest abuse of girls female inmate rape by male prison guard and obstacles for women lawyers achieving partnerships in their firms The authors provide a wealth of recent data drawn from both domestic and international human rights sources as well as from personal interviews The final portion of the text describes women's setbacks in entering the traditionally male dominated fields of policing the law and corrections if people are given half a chance they can draw on their own resources to heal from the past and build for the future This empowerment approach is already prominent in the social work field and widely used in victim treatment programs for working with female offenders

Crime and Social Institutions Richard Rosenfeld, 2006 This volume presents recent theoretical arguments and empirical research on the relationship between crime and the structure of communities and whole societies Focusing on the institutional anomie perspective and allied crime theories the selections examine the impact on crime of the family education community organizations and social welfare institutions An important theme of the volume is that vital social institutions can cushion the effects of poverty and inequality on crime rates

Constructions of Deviance Patricia A. Adler, Peter Adler, 2006 This text is the industry standard for publishing the most recent and relevant articles in the field of deviance by demonstrating to students how the concepts and theories of deviance can be applied to the world around them The authors include both theoretical analyses and ethnographic illustrations of how deviance is socially constructed organized and managed The Adlers challenge the reader to see the diversity and pervasiveness of deviance in society by covering a wide variety of deviant acts represented throughout the text Most importantly the Adler and Adler present deviance as a component of society and examine the construction of deviance in terms of differential social power

The book takes an interactionist or constructionist perspective on deviance looking at the processes in society that create deviance. The authors have selected studies that are ethnographic in character focusing on the experiences of deviants, the deviant making process, and the ways in which people labeled as deviant in society react to that label. Students enjoy the Adler's balanced selection of readings as they are timely and engaging. In-depth introduction, explanation of theory, and discussion questions after each reading help guide students through the material.

Criminological Thought Robert J. Mutchnick, W. Timothy Austin, Randy Martin, 2009. Offering an extensive look into the lives and times of fifteen notable crime theorists, Criminological Thought: Pioneers Past and Present examines the people who have helped shape the discipline. Features fifteen criminological pioneers. Includes a systematic approach that focuses on one thinker per chapter. Offers an innovative work that places the theoretical perspective within a historical context.
