Crime Lovers Casebook:

The Crime Lover's Casebook Jerome Charyn, 1996 All the stories in this unparalleled treasury represent crime writing that no longer follows the rules of yesterday's cozies and detective fiction Evil still lurks here but there are no sanitized off stage murders solved by aloof paragons of deduction Instead we have vigorous ironic disturbingly realistic and undeniably alive tales that are diverse and riveting

Conversations with Jerome Charyn Sophie Vallas, 2014-09-30 This volume of fourteen interviews covers the prolific and rich career of author Jerome Charyn b 1937 Four of the interviews appear in English for the first time and two interviews appear here in print for the first time as well As one of his autobiographical volumes claims Jerome Charyn is a Bronx Boy a child born from immigrant parents who went through Ellis Island in the 1920s like so many other travelers without luggage a little werewolf who grew up on his own in the chaos of the Bronx ghetto I think I was defined by two things World War II and the movies His work remains deeply marked by this childhood largely forgotten by the American Dream If Charyn has spent much of his life in Paris he has paradoxically never left the Bronx El Bronx is there inside my head and I revisit it the way Hemingway would fish the Big Two Hearted River in his dreams His whole work is a long attempt at evoking his own history and celebrating his lifelong marveling at the power of language our second skin as well as his deep unflinching belief in the promises of fiction Since 1964 Charyn has published more than fifty books ranging from fiction to nonfiction and including short stories very popular crime novels graphic novels cowritten with European artists essays on American culture and cinema as well as on New York autobiography and biography an ever changing production that has made it difficult for critics to classify him And yet in many ways Charyn's writing thrives on constant currents the words voice song undersong or rhythm return frequently in his interviews as he explains what literature is to him and ceaselessly asserts that he is trying to find a music for a musicless world a language for people who cannot speak
