Crimes Of Compassion:

CRIMES OF COMPASSION. ,1981 The Power of Compassion Marion Kostanski,2009-03-26 We entered the 21st Century full of anxiety with the promised threat of a millennium bug that could potentially cripple our lives Since then we have witnessed an increasing level of angst and despair across the world as warnings of climate change and economic hardships have been forecast Wars have raged a new evil has entered our consciousness and the word terrorism has come to the forefront of our lexicon Millions of innocent people have lost their lives Today we are witnessing the ever increasing state of displaced persons being shuffled from makeshift home to makeshift home being locked up in camps and cut off from the rest of society Everywhere around us we hear about increases in depression and mental health disorders among the general population Young people are checking out of the mainstream there are phenomenal increases in the rate of suicide and older people are living out wretched lives isolated and alone Multinational corporations have been accused of extorting vulnerable peoples for economic gain and consumption seems to be our new idol What is becoming of our society How do we make sense of our world The essays in this book provide a compelling insight and reflection into the work of health professionals as they struggle to make sense of their work and the world around them in this new century From exploring the concept of Living Compassion working with the good bad and ugly aspects of our lives and reflecting on practice the authors discuss their ideas on compassion They offer you the reader an opportunity to reflect on your own daily practice and to go forward with a sense of shared humanity Compassionate Reasoning Marc Gopin,2022 People who work in helping professions have in common Marc Gopin argues a set of cultivated moral character traits and psychosocial skills They tend to be kinder more reasonable more self controlled and more goal oriented to peace They are united by a particular set of moral values and the emotional skills to put those values into practice allowing them to excel in what he calls Compassionate Reasoning In this book Gopin draws upon the history of ethics along with his own thirty year career in the field of peacebuilding to develop an understanding of decisions that we are all forced to make in life s many ethical gray zones The very multiplicity of approaches to ethics says Gopin invites us to look for higher principles and intuitions Crimes of Compassion Ross W. users with the most authoritative and comprehensive coverage available on victimology and crime prevention Presents victimology and crime prevention as their own separate justifiable disciplines rather than subfields within more established disciplines Discusses the status of victims within the criminal justice system as well as topics of deterring and preventing victimization in the first place and responding to victims needs Offers anchor essays written by leading scholars in their respective fields to provide starting points for investigating the more salient victimology and crime prevention topics Key Themes Business Prevention Actions Civil Justice System Correlates of Victimization Courts Alternative Remedies Courts Law and Justice Crime Prevention Crime Prevention Partnerships Criminal Justice System Fear of Crime Individual Protection Actions Interventions and Intervention Programs for Victim and Offender Intrafamilial Offenses Legislation and Statutes Media and Crime Prevention Methodology Offenses Special Topics Official Crime Data Personal Offenses Property Offenses Psychological Mental and Physical Health Issues Residential Community Crime Prevention School and Workplace Offenses School Based Crime Prevention Services and Treatment for Victims Theory Victimization Scales and Surveys Victimology Youth Focused Crime Prevention The victimology crime prevention nexus provides the foundation for a comprehensive and hopefully long lasting approach to addressing the public s risk of being victimized and aids individuals who are targeted by a criminal act This is a welcome addition to any academic library The availability in print and electronic formats provides students with convenient easy access wherever they may be

Crime and Punishment Fred E. Baumann, Kenneth Martin Jensen, 1989 Crime and punishment brings together the latest views on the theoretical and practical justifications of punishment for crime This collection of chapter presented at a PACC symposium primarily offers a retributivist view but shows that retributivism is a possible position for civil libertarians as well as conservatives It also details how retributivism may be chosen by both those who favour more severe punishments and by those who prefer lighter sentences

Judging and Understanding Dr Pedro Alexis Tabensky, 2012-10-01 This collection embodies a debate that explores what could be characterised as the tension between judging and understanding It seems that after a particular threshold of understanding of the basic facts leading to a given moral transgression the more we understand the context and motives leading to crime the more likely we are to abstain from harsh retributive judgement Martha Nussbaum s essay Equity and Mercy included in this collection is the philosophical starting point of this debate and Bernhard Schlink s novel The Reader a novel exploring the tension between judging and understanding among other things is used as a case study by most contributors Some contributors situated at one end of the spectrum of views represented in this collection argue for the wholesale elimination of our practices of retribution in the light of the tension between judging and understanding while contributors on the other side of the spectrum argue that the tension does not actually exist A whole array of intermediate positions including Nussbaum's are represented This anthology is comprised of nearly all specially commissioned essays bringing together work dealing with the moral metaphysical epistemological and phenomenological issues required for properly understanding whether in fact there is a tension between judging and understanding and what the moral and legal implications may be of accepting or rejecting this tension

Dubin, J.D., Emily Horowitz, Ph.D., 2017-06-21 Arguing for reform in the judicial treatment of people convicted of sex offenses this book examines how sentencing policies are based on emotion rather than research Using the lens of harsh sex offense prosecutions of those with developmental disabilities this book highlights the hysteria underlying our approach to sex offenses American State Trials John Davison Lawson, 1916
