Crimes Against Humanity:

Crimes Against Humanity Norman Geras, 2013-07-19 This book tells the story of the emergence of the concept of crimes against humanity. It examines its origins, the ethical assumptions underpinning it, its legal and philosophical boundaries, and some of the controversies connected with it. A brief historical introduction is followed by an exploration of the various meanings of the term crimes against humanity that have been suggested. A definition is proposed, linking it to the idea of basic human rights. The book looks at some problems with the boundaries of the concept, the threshold for its proper application, and the related issue of humanitarian intervention. It concludes with a discussion of the prospects for the further development of crimes against humanity law. The work serves as a clear and compact introduction for students of politics, philosophy, and law, as well as for the general reading public.

Crimes Against Humanity Geoffrey Robertson, 2008 Geoffrey Robertson's Crimes Against Humanity is a superb and highly influential account of the history of the human rights movement up to the present day. From the French Revolution and the Nuremberg trials to 9/11 and the invasion of Iraq, Robertson traces the developing concept of human rights and shows how far we still have to go. His inspiring narrative is both a masterly history and a clarion call to the global justice movement.

Crimes against Humanity M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2011-04-25 This book traces the evolution of crimes against humanity (CAH) and their application from the end of World War I to the present day in terms of both historic legal analysis and subject matter content. The first part of the book addresses general issues pertaining to the categorization of CAH in normative jurisprudential and doctrinal terms. This is followed by an analysis of the specific contents of CAH, describing its historic phases: going through international criminal tribunals, mixed model tribunals, and the International Criminal Court. The book examines the general parts and defenses of the crime, along with the history and jurisprudence of both international and national prosecutions. For the first time, a list of all countries that have enacted national legislation specifically directed at CAH is collected, along with all of the national prosecutions that have occurred under national legislation up to 2010.

Crimes against Humanity in the 21st Century Robert Dubler SC, Matthew Kalyk, 2018-07-23 In Crimes Against Humanity in the 21st Century, Dr Robert Dubler SC and Matthew Kalyk provide a comprehensive analysis of crimes against humanity in international criminal law. The text tracks the crime from its conceptual origins in antiquity to its emergence in customary international law at Nuremberg, to the establishment of the modern definition at the Hague with the ICTY, ICTR, and ICC, and finally to recent state practice and jurisprudence. The text sets out conclusions about the legal elements of the crime and contends that the raison d'être of the crime is located not in the inhumanity of its authors' actions, but in the extent to which its authors threaten international peace and security, so as to justify international intervention. With a foreword by Geoffrey Robertson QC.

Crimes Against Humanity Geoffrey Robertson, 2013-02-05 When it was first published in 1999, Crimes Against Humanity called for a radical shift from diplomacy to justice in international affairs In vivid non legalese prose leading human rights lawyer Geoffrey Robertson made a riveting case for holding political and military leaders accountable in international courts for genocide torture and mass murder Since then fearsome figures such as Charles Taylor Laurent Gbagbo and Ratko Mladic have been tried in international criminal court and a global movement has rallied around the human rights framework of justice Any such legal framework requires constant evolution in order to stay relevant and this newly revised and expanded volume brings the conversation up to date In substantial new chapters Robertson covers the protection of war correspondents the problem of piracy crimes against humanity in Syria nuclear armament in Iran and other challenges we are grappling with today He criticizes the Obama administration s policies around targeted killing and the trials of Khalid Sheikh Mohammed and other high value detainees By rendering a complex debate accessible Robertson once again provides an essential guide for anyone looking to understand human rights and how to work toward a more complete blueprint for justice
