Potter, 2015-06-09 This book explores how we make sense of ourselves when work is precarious and intrinsically alienating We know little about how this experience of work impacts the lives of men and women and less about the way individuals understand themselves in the face of institutions and organizations from which they feel marginalized Based on the narratives of men and women who underwent extraordinary work life changes Crisis at Work examines how we negotiate greater meaning and fulfilment when our productive lives fail to sustain and satisfy Reflecting a growing fracture between what we value believe in and are committed to and the degree to which work and career have become incapable of assuaging those desires Potter examines how individuals attempt to assemble working lives they find rich and rewarding and how that work is negotiated within the constraints and possibilities of the contemporary moment The Arts of Imprisonment Leonidas K. Cheliotis, 2016-12-05 The arts spanning the visual design performing media musical and literary genres constitute an alternative lens through which to understand state sanctioned punishment and its place in public consciousness Perhaps this is especially so in the case of imprisonment its nature its functions and the ways in which these register in public perceptions and desires have historically and to some extent inherently been intertwined with the arts But the products of this intertwinement have by no means been constant or uniform Indeed just as exploring imprisonment and its public meanings through the lens of the arts may reveal hitherto obscured instances of social control within or outside prisons so too it may uncover a rich and possibly inspirational archive of resistance to them This edited collection sheds light both on state use of the arts for the purposes of controlling prisoners and the broader public and the use made of the arts by prisoners and portions of the broader public as tools of resistance to penal states The book also includes a number of chapters that address arts in prisons programmes making distinctive contributions to the literature on their philosophy formation operation effectiveness and research evaluation as well as taking care to explore the politics surrounding and underpinning these multiple themes Handbook of Probation Loraine Gelsthorpe, Rod Morgan, 2013-05-13 This Handbook provides a comprehensive authoritative and up to date source of information and analysis about all aspects of the work of the Probation Service It takes full account of the many changes that the Probation Service has undergone over the last few years and is currently undergoing as probation becomes part of the broader National Offender Management Service Contributors to the book are drawn from leading academics and practitioners in the field drawing upon the best expertise available Running through the book is a concern with a range of key current issues such as addressing the diversity of offenders and creating effective links with other criminal justice agencies and it includes perspectives from both probation service staff and from offenders and victims This book is an essential text for practitioners trainees and students of probation and those studying it as part of a wider criminology or criminal justice course All Our Welfare Peter Beresford, 2016-01-29 The UK welfare state is under sustained ideological and political attack It has also been undermined by accusations of paternalism and past failures to engage with the very people it is intended to help This unique book is the first to critique the past present and future welfare state from a participatory perspective Peter Beresford champion of user involvement draws on pioneering theories and practice of welfare service user movements to offer a blueprint for a new participatory social policy He controversially challenges orthodox social policy and the limitations of both Fabian and Neo liberal perspectives in engaging people to improve their own welfare drawing on service users own ideas and experience including fascinating vignettes from his own family s experience to demonstrate the value of user knowledge Filling a much needed gap in the literature this accessible text will provide a great introduction for students and a road map for practitioners of an alternative vision for a future participatory and sustainable social policy It will also command much wider interest from everyone concerned with how we look after each other in future in society Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields ,2000 Justice of the Peace ,1999 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000 Oral History ,2003 The Writers Directory ,2013 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Prison Service Journal ,1971 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,Reference Reed,1995-12 The Spectator ,1962 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Quill & Quire ,1993 Book Review Digest Leslie Dunmore-Leiber,1976
