Conspiracy And Other Stories:

Rough Waters and Other Stories Richard Lebow, 2023-11-24 Rough Waters and Other Stories is a collection of original stories addressing different ethical questions and dilemmas. An introduction makes connections among the stories, puts them in personal and political perspective, and anchors them in a tragic understanding of life and ethics. The characters in Rough Waters and Other Stories some based on real historical people must make or finesse ethical choices; some of them straight forward, others tragic in nature. Tragic choices involve trade offs between seemingly irreconcilable but important goals. Alternatively, they entail committing ourselves to decisions or policies whose outcomes are uncertain. We are desperate to avoid tragic choices and prone to convince ourselves often in the face of good evidence that we can satisfy all of our desires or needs instead of making difficult choices between or among them. We also tend to convince ourselves that our decisions or policies will succeed in proportion to the degree that we feel compelled to commit to them. A standard trope of Greek tragedy, think here of Oedipus, is that our choices sometimes lead directly to the outcomes we are trying desperately to avoid. The Johari Mirror and Other Stories James Dinwiddie, 2003. Here are ten stories that impart unexpected insights from a unique and gifted writer. The surfing pilgrims who lose their paradise in the title story, The Johari Mirror, the rock and roll travelers in Dead Fish Eye, the clay stained miners of The Jackass Hill Insane Asylum, all exhibit their mortal flaws, innocence and conceits in worlds where lives shift unpredictably, outcomes are mysterious. In Los Angeles in the swinging sixties, a college student meets up with the Manson Family and confronts their evil. In Ohio, the Great Serpent Mound becomes metaphor for death and rebirth in the nuclear age. In 1950's Tennessee, a young boy is treetop witness to violence and Ethnic Evolution. A park ranger in Tears to the National Anthem recounts a momentous and strange mass weeping on the White House lawn. These stories reveal the late 20th Century in exhilarating and profound transition, a life lived in the shadow of chaos. A successful Russian immigrant murders his family and commits suicide, echoing Crime and Punishment in the derangement of A Real Russian Tragedy. The Not So New Age pilgrims sing in dolphin and get a good dose of unmasking Elvis Presley and Frederick Chopin return to remind us of the arousing possibilities of music and of its tragic disappointment. The Johari Mirror presents the range and versatility, the artistry of language and ideas from tightly controlled to dazzlingly free, from mock adolescent to piercing critic of a bold and illuminating writer. The voices and tales, fiction, memoir and commentary, all make the page sing in genuinely prophetic tones. Visit the author's web site at www.worldcat.com. The peasantry, About Catherine de'
