Constable And His Drawings:

Constable and His Drawings Ian Fleming-Williams, John Constable, 1990 This collection of 42 drawings never previously published together gives new insight into Constable's technical and emotional approach into his work With the help of copious comparative illustrations and exhaustively detailed research drawn from numerous contemporary sources the author builds up a portrait of the artist his background and family life The luscious quality of Constable's painting typifies an idealized image of the English countryside in the 18th century Such familiar paintings as Greenham Lock and Flatford Mill were not captured in spontaneous bursts but were committed to canvas only after numerous working drawings and oil sketches had been completed This is the first full length study of the subject presenting much hitherto unpublished material and offering a balanced and pertinent assessment of Constable and his work exciting titles Constable John Constable,2003 John Constable: Drawings and Paintings Raya Yotova,2018-07-07 John Constable 1776 31 March 1837 was an English landscape painter Born in Suffolk he is known principally for his landscape paintings of Dedham Vale the area surrounding his home which he invested with an intensity of affection Although his paintings are now among the most popular and valuable in British art Constable was never financially successful He did not become a member of the establishment until he was elected to the Royal Academy at the age of 52 His work was embraced in France where he sold more works than in his native England and inspired the Barbizon school Constable painted many full scale preliminary sketches of his landscapes to test the composition in advance of finished pictures These large sketches with their free and vigorous brushwork were revolutionary at the time and they continue to interest artists scholars and the general public In addition to the full scale oil sketches Constable completed numerous observational studies of landscapes and clouds determined to become more scientific in his recording of atmospheric conditions The sketches themselves were the first ever done in oils directly from the subject in the open air To convey the effects of light and movement Constable used broken brushstrokes often in small touches which he scumbled over lighter passages creating an impression of sparkling light enveloping the entire landscape Constable's watercolours were also remarkably free for their time the almost mystical Stonehenge 1835 with its double rainbow is often considered to be one of the greatest watercolours ever painted

The early paintings and drawings of John Constable. Plates Graham Reynolds,1996 Constable Sarah Cove,John Constable,2006 This study concentrates on the six foot canvases of the River Stour produced by Constable between 1819 and 1825 and examines the artist's development of this single thematic concept Each work is shown beside its compositional sketch illustrating his artistic process John Constable - CLOUDS IN PAINTINGS & SKETCHES E. L. Helton PhD,2021-12-15 Born in East Bergholt Suffolk on 11 June 1776 Constable was the second son of the six children of Golding Constable and Ann Watts He was educated at a private school in Lavenham and at the grammar school in Dedham subsequently joining the family business of which it was intended he would succeed as manager He learned the technique of painting from John Dunthorne a local plumber and glazier who was an amateur painter and was encouraged by Sir George Beaumont Staying with relatives at Edmonton in 1796 he met John Cranch a mediocre artist whose style he imitated and John Thomas Smith the antiquarian draftsman with whom he made drawings of picturesque cottages In 1799 his father gave him an allowance to enter the Royal Academy Schools reluctantly consenting in 1802 to his becoming a professional painter That same year Constable showed his first landscape at the Academy where he was to exhibit nearly every year until his death and acquired a studio opposite the family house He spent summers in East Bergholt sketching from nature until 1817 in the autumn of 1806 he made a two month visit to the Lake District In 1809 Constable met and fell in love with Maria Bicknell but he was unable to marry her until 1816 owing to the opposition of Maria's grandfather After the marriage the couple lived in London first on Keppel Street then after 1822 on Charlotte Street The marriage which was the prelude to Constable's finest work was a deeply happy one and there were seven children to whom the artist was devoted Maria's health was far from robust however and she died in 1828 a blow from which Constable never fully recovered

An exhibition of sketches and drawings by John Constable from the collection of Dr. H.A.C. Gregory M.C., 1949, 1949 Constable Michael Rosenthal, 1986-01-01 John Constable's Hay Wain is probably the most popular of all British paintings and Constable is loved and revered as the artist who first painted the fresh beauty of the verdant English countryside From sketchy to finished from minutely detailed to expressionist Constable's paintings watercolors and drawings are discussed against the background of one of the more turbulent periods of British history and integrated with their broader cultural milieu
