Constables English Landscape Scenery:

Constable's "English Landscape Scenery" John Constable, Andrew Wilton, 1979 Constable's English Landscape Scenery David Hill, John Constable, 1992 English Landscape Scenery, 1855 John Constable's English Landscape Scenery and Chiaroscuro Juilee Croker, 1998 Turner and Constable Nicola Moorby, 2025-03-11 Born just fourteen months apart one in London and the other in rural Suffolk J M W Turner and John Constable went on to change the face of British art The two men have routinely been seen as polar opposites not least by their peers Differing in temperament background beliefs and vision they created images as dissimilar as their personalities Yet in many ways they were fellow travellers As children of the late 18 th century both faced the same challenges and opportunities Above all they shared common cause as champions of a distinctively British art Through their work they fought for the recognition and appreciation of landscape painting and in doing so ensured their reputations were forever intertwined and interlinked Nicola Moorby offers us a fresh perspective on two extraordinary artists uncovering the layers of fiction that have embellished and disguised their greatest achievements For Turner it is also the story of the triumph of landscape painting Picturesque and Sublime Tim Barringer, T. J. Barringer, Gillian Forrester, Sophie Lynford, Jennifer Raab, Nicholas Robbins, 2018-01-01 Thomas Cole 1801 1848 is widely acknowledged as the founder of American landscape painting Born in England Cole emigrated in 1818 to the United States where he transformed British and continental European traditions to create a distinctive American idiom He embraced the picturesque which emphasized touristic pleasures and the sublime an aesthetic category rooted in notions of fear and danger Including striking paintings and a broad range of works on paper from watercolors to etchings mezzotints aquatints engravings and lithographs this book explores the trans Atlantic context for Cole s oeuvre These works chart a history of landscape aesthetics and demonstrate the essential role of prints as agents of artistic transmission The authors offer new interpretations of work by Cole and the British artists who influenced him including J M W Turner and John Constable revealing Cole s debt to artistic traditions as he formulated a profound new category in art the American sublime

John Constable's Skies John E. Thornes, John Constable, 1999-01-01 John Constable is arguably the most accomplished painter of English skies and weather of all time For Constable the sky was the keynote the standard of scale and the chief organ of sentiment in a landscape painting But how far did he understand the workings of the forces of nature which created his favourite cumulus clouds portrayed in so many of his skies over the landscapes of Hampstead Heath Salisbury and Suffolk And were the skies he painted scientifically accurate In this lucid and accessible study John Thornes provides a meteorological framework for reading the skies of landscape art compares Constable s skies to those produced by other artists from the middle ages to the nineteenth century analyses Constable s own meteorological understanding and examines the development of his painted skies In so doing he provides fresh evidence to identify the year of painting of some of Constable s previously undated cloud studies Routledge Revivals: Patriotism: The Making and Unmaking of British National Identity (1989) Raphael Samuel, 2016-10-04 First published in 1989 this is the third of three volumes exploring the changing notions of patriotism in British life from the thirteenth century to the late twentieth century and constitutes an attempt to come to terms with the power of the national idea through a historically informed critique This volume studies some of the leading figures of national myth such as Britannia and John Bull One group of essays looks at the idea of distinctively national landscape and the ways in which it corresponds to notions of social order A chapter on the poetry of Edmund Spenser explores metaphorical representations of Britain as a walled garden and the idea of an enchanted national space is taken up in a series of essays on literature theatre and cinema An introductory piece charts some of the startling changes in the image of national character from the seventeenth century notion of the English as the most melancholy people in Europe to the more uncertain and conflicting images of today

Constable Sarah Cove, John Constable, 2006 This study concentrates on the six foot canvases of the River Stour produced by Constable between 1819 and 1825 and examines the artist's development of this single thematic concept Each work is shown beside its compositional sketch illustrating his artistic process
