Containment Concept And Policy :

Containment BPI Information Services, 1986-10 The concept of containment originated by George F Kennan has influenced U S policy toward the Soviet Union since 1947 This volume considers containment as it originated as it developed over 40 years and as it is likely to affect future U S national security policy Part I presents the views of individuals who gave life to the concept of containment Walt and Eugene Rostow Dean Rusk Clark Clifford Alexis Johnson and George Kennan Part II contains essays on determinants and instruments of containment including public opinion economics and military means Part III examines the past and future of containment in the Soviet Union Europe Eastern Europe the Middle East Arab countries Africa Asia and the Caribbean Basin Part IV offers views on sociocultural imperatives for a new containment policy and choices and opportunities available for policymakers S N 008 020 01080 4 v 1 11 25 008 020 01104 5 v 2 16 25

Containment Terry L. Deibel, John L. Gaddis, 1995-09-01 Addresses applications of containment a complex political statement espoused by George F Kennan in The Origins of Containment Essays focus on Soviet conduct and power Crises in Eastern Europe An Arab View of Containment Containment in the Middle East and Southeast Asia and Africa Containment s Future picks up on a new socio cultural imperative and includes noteworthy essays from Eugene V Rostow and Norman Podhoretz Includes an epilogue from the editor as well as an extensive index U. S. Containment Policy and the Conflict in Indochina William Duiker, 1994-07-01 From the end of World War II down to the dissolution of the Soviet Union the primary objective of U S foreign policy has been to prevent the expansion of communism Indeed that objective was directly embodied in the so called strategy of containment a global approach to the pursuit of U S national security interests that was first adumbrated by George F Kennan in 1947 and later became the guiding force in U S foreign policy At first the concept of containment was applied primarily to Europe It was there that the threat to U S interests from international communism directed from Moscow was first perceived in the form of Soviet efforts to dominate the nations of Eastern Europe and extend Soviet influence into the eastern Mediterranean and the Middle East Other areas of the world Asia Africa and Latin America were considered to be less threatened by forces hostile to the free world or more peripheral to U S foreign policy concerns At least that was the view initially proclaimed by George Kennan himself who identified five areas in the world as vital to the United States North America Great Britain Central Europe the USSR and Japan Only the latter was located in Asia By the end of the decade however the focus of U S containment strategy was extended to include East and Southeast Asia primarily because of the increasing likelihood of a communist victory in the Chinese Civil War which in the minds of some U S policymakers would be tantamount to giving the Soviet Union a dominant position on the Asian mainland Added to the growing threat in China was the increasingly unstable situation in Southeast Asia where the long arc of colonies that had been established by the imperialist powers during the last half of the nineteenth century was gradually but inexorably being replaced by independent states The emergence of such colonial territories into independence was generally viewed as a welcome prospect by foreign policy observers in Washington but when combined with the impending victory of communist forces in China it raised the unsettling possibility that the entire region might be brought within the reach of the Kremlin

Development of the Idea of Detente Michael B. Froman, 2016-01-28 Since the early 1950s there has been agreement in the US concerning the desirability of improving relations with the Soviet Union Policymakers have often disagreed however about how to implement policy and this book looks at the policy of individual administrations
