Contemporary Caribbean Cultures and Societies in a Global Context Franklin W. Knight, Teresita Martínez-Vergne, 2006-05-18 The Caribbean ranks among the earliest and most completely globalized regions in the world From the first moment Europeans set foot on the islands to the present products people and ideas have made their way back and forth between the region and other parts of the globe with unequal but inexorable force An inventory of some of these unprecedented multidirectional exchanges this volume provides a measure of as well as a model for new scholarship on globalization in the region Ten essays by leading scholars in the field of Caribbean studies identify and illuminate important social and cultural aspects of the region as it seeks to maintain its own identity against the unrelenting pressures of globalization These essays examine cultural phenomena in their creolized forms from sports and religion to music and drink as well as the Caribbean manifestations of more universal trends from racial inequality and feminist activism to indebtedness and economic uncertainty Throughout the volume points to the contending forces of homogeneity and differentiation that define globalization and highlights the growing agency of the Caribbean peoples in the modern world Contributors Antonio Benitez Rojo 1931 2004 Alex Dupuy Wesleyan University Juan Flores City University of New York Graduate Center Jorge L Giovannetti University of Puerto Rico Aline Helg University of Geneva Franklin W Knight The Johns Hopkins University Anthony P Maingot Florida International University Teresita Martinez Vergne Macalester College Helen McBain Economic Commission for Latin America the Caribbean Trinidad Frances Negron Muntaner Columbia University Valentina Peguero University of Wisconsin Stevens Point Raquel Romberg Temple University      Eternal Colonialism Russell Benjamin, Gregory O. Hall, 2010-02-03 This book examines eternal colonialism a term used to describe the policies that were designed by the Western world and the United States in order to keep most of the world in a permanently subordinate political economic social and military state Eternal colonialism is a combination of both internal and external colonialism or neocolonialism Benjamin and Hall argue that the colonialism beginning in the fifteenth century never ended but rather developed different forms over time The scope of their work examines eternal colonialism in both American and international contexts The authors contend that the United States practices internal colonialism within its borders in addition to being fully engaged in external colonialism Eternal Colonialism will prove essential to those who want to understand the ongoing global tension and turmoil especially with regard to North South relations Furthermore readers will see how the United States arguably the greatest of the colonizers practices colonialism within its own borders Additionally this book demonstrates that internal and external colonialism are parts of a global system of Western domination      Violence and the Third World in International Relations Randolph B. Persaud, Narendran Kumarakulasingam, 2020-06-09 Violence and the Third World in International Relations is intended as a contribution to the decolonization of international relations and especially of international security studies much of which is dominated by a self sustaining Eurocentrism Rather than focusing on the motivations of violence this volume is concerned with the devastating and debilitating consequences of war against the Third World Contributors delve into the violent structuring of Third World societies during colonialism the Cold War and globalization A wide range of topics are systematically examined including but not restricted to the role of racism in the construction of the international system evangelical universalism and colonial conquest in Africa American civilizational security as Grand Strategy in Asia the colonial roots of guerrilla war in India the widespread suffering and death inflicted on Iraqis through sanctions violence against indigenous peoples in Colombia related to war capitalism the complicated legacies of genocide in Cambodia the Saudi led US and UK backed war against Yemen the relationalities between violence in the US and the Third World during Obama s presidency the structural location of gang violence in Central America in the aftermath of foreign intervention and a broader understanding of security and insecurity in the Caribbean Violence and the Third World in International Relations will be of particular interest to scholars of postcolonial and decolonial international relations international security studies and race and international relations This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Migrant and Tourist Encounters Andrea Easley Morris, 2020-05-13 Migrant and Tourist Encounters The Ethics of Im mobility in 21st Century Dominican and Cuban Cultures analyzes the effects of clashing flows of voluntary and involuntary travelers to and from these countries due to an increase in migration and tourism during the last three decades I compare the ways in which literary works and films reflect on and critique the power relations and ethics of im mobility and encounter both on the islands and in destinations abroad The works draw attention to the interconnectedness of migration tourism and other forms of travel as well as immobility and portray growing local and global inequalities through characters disparate access to free voluntary movement I consider how the works respond to the question of the moral potential of encounters produced by im mobilities and the possibility of connection across differences I argue that Dominican and Cuban artists not only critique neo colonial paradigms of power and im mobility but envision and enact strategies for belonging and in some cases suggest a path toward de colonial cosmopolitanism 21st Century

The Latin Americanist, 2007 Méthod(e)s Jean-Bernard Ouédraogo, 2021-08-09 The bilingual French English journal M thod e s founded in 2015 is an African initiative with the objective to enlarge the methodological debates on the Global South The desire for a strong understanding of methodology is to situate it above academic trends thereby placing it in line with a universal history of the sciences Just as calling dominant paradigms into question leaves room for creative opportunities so does the comparison of theoretical approaches and technical models of data collection Questions related to methods are not purely technical or merely philosophical reflections The examination of the method used in scientific investigations necessarily leads us to question the validity and consequences of research results From this point of view the journal Methodes is not a forum for simple discussions on the mechanics of research but a tool to question social interests influencing academic research and giving it a political function. It is also intended to lead to a more critical look at the creation of theories dealing with the status of individuals and societies in Africa and the Global South. Methodes aims to bring into question, connect and compare the theoretical, technical and political foundations of the social sciences as applied to human societies. Each contribution is followed by a summary in the respectively other language. In order to ensure a broad intellectual reach, the editors reserve the right to include articles written in other languages. All the abstracts of the papers are also available in Arabic, Chinese and Spanish.

Encyclopedia of Global Religion Mark Juergensmeyer, Wade Clark Roof, 2011-10-18. The multi-volume Encyclopedia of Global Religion provides a comprehensive overview of the globalization of religious culture and society around the world in both its historical and contemporary aspects. The encyclopedia includes topics related to the diaspora of cultures and dispersions of peoples, the transitional aspects of religious ideas and practices, the cultural diversity of religious traditions and the responses of religion, both negative and positive, to multicultural society. The volumes include essays on the contemporary religious society of every country in the world. The contributors to the encyclopedia are leading authorities on these topics from around the world. The editors Mark Juergensmeyer and Wade Clark Roof are sociologists of religion at the University of California Santa Barbara.

Neighbor-Homes Megan Jeanette Myers, 2025-08-21. Neighbor Homes Julia Alvarez and Edwidge Danticat. Write Hispaniola and the Diaspora analyzes the work of two of the most acclaimed contemporary American and Caribbean authors for the first time in a single book. Extending beyond scholarly approaches to home as a theoretical construct, Neighbor Homes considers how Alvarez and Danticat inaugurate multiple spaces of belonging for their off and on island fictional characters for their diverse community of readers and for themselves. Revealing a more complex and complete understanding of these Hispaniola-rooted authors, the project places Alvarez and Danticat into conversation at a time when the construction of a border wall and racist immigration laws confirm increasing anti-Haitian sentiment in the Dominican Republic. Neighbor Homes incorporates correspondence between the two writers to extrapolate diverse narrative representations of Hispaniola and to highlight various themes central to their work and social justice platforms including family relationships, community building, neighbor aesthetics, statelessness and border solidarity. Neighbor Homes will help interdisciplinary audiences read Danticat and Alvarez with a more critical eye so that they can more adeptly and profoundly understand Haiti, the Dominican Republic and their respective diasporas. This important study is an essential read for students and scholars of literature and social justice, cultural studies, history and politics, as well as Caribbean, Latinx and African diaspora literatures.
