Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Bavjola Gami Shatro, 2024-05-29 Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Voices that Come from the Abyss is the first scholarly monograph on the concept of loss in Albanian poetry and life writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries It represents the first academic contribution to an international audience dedicated to three women writers that personified loss in communist Albania and two eminent poets who wrote representative and outstanding poetry on the meaning of loss in Albanian literature Through the work of these three politically persecuted women writers and two modern poets this book analyzes loss in relation to pain grief memory death freedom and love inquiring on the meeting point between life writing and poetry and the point where they part ways The book explores the work of Musine Kokalari the first Albanian woman writer and political dissident Bedi Pipa the first woman known to have authored a diary in Albanian literature Drita omo author of a diary and poetry written in secret in political exile under communism Fatos Arapi the Albanian poet who has been awarded the most important international literary prize to date and who has elaborated on the ethical implications of freedom grief and death in relation to personal loss Ali Podrimja a cornerstone of contemporary Albanian poetry author of a volume that marked a definite turn to modernity in Albanian poetry in the Republic of Kosova and to date one of the best volumes of poetry written in the history of Albanian literature Lum Lumi where he explores the depth of grief pain loss and love The works of these five authors bring forth the necessity to re visit the history of Albanian literature and promote interdisciplinary and comparative studies beyond Albanian literature Shatro studies the unique traits of their life writing the specific link between different literary genres and the exceptional capacity of poetry to carry loss to the point of articulating the unsaid thus giving a voice to silence She argues that through diary memoir epistolary and poetry all five authors provide different views of loss and its challenging ethical implications in relation to death memory and freedom Remitting, Restoring and Building Contemporary Albania Nataša Gregorič Bon, Smoki Musaraj, 2021-12-14 The edited collection is a fresh contribution to the anthropological sociological and geographical explorations of time space in Southeast Europe and Albania in particular By delving into various levels of people s daily lives such as literature relation to the environment the urbanization process art photography trauma and remembering processes of modernity the volume vividly portrays various realms that are lived and perceived It largely builds on the premise that structural resemblances of the past continuously reappear in particular social and cultural moments and seek to restore and build the individual and collective lives in contemporary Albania Evolution and Revolution in Modern Albanian Literature Robert Elsie, 1991 The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers Chronicle in Stone Ismail Kadare, 2011-07-01 Masterful in its simplicity Chronicle in Stone is a touching coming of age story and a testament to the perseverance of the human spirit Surrounded by the magic of beautiful women and literature a boy must endure the deprivations of war as he suffers the hardships of growing up His sleepy country has just thrown off centuries of tyranny but new waves of domination inundate his city Through the boy s eyes we see the terrors of World War II as he witnesses fascist invasions allied bombings partisan infighting and the many faces of human cruelty as well as the simple pleasures of life Evacuating to the countryside

he expects to find an ideal world full of extraordinary things but discovers instead an archaic backwater where a severed arm becomes a talisman and deflowered girls mysteriously vanish Woven between the chapters of the boy's story are tantalizing fragments of the city's history As the devastation mounts the fragments lose coherence and we perceive firsthand how the violence of war destroys more than just buildings and bridges The Palace of Dreams Ismail Kadare,1998 When it was first published in the author's native country THE PALACE OF DREAMS was immediately banned The novel revolves around a secret ministry whose task is not just to spy on its citizens but to collect and interpret their dreams An entire nation's unconscious is thus tapped and meticulously laid bare in the form of images and symbols of the dreaming mind Broken

April Ismail Kadare,1990 Set high up in the Albanian mountains this novel tells of the tragic deaths of a young couple on their honeymoon Their deaths become inextricably linked to a vendetta The author has also written The General of the Dead Army and Doruntine History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2007-07-18 The third volume in the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe focuses on the making and remaking of those institutional structures that engender and regulate the creation distribution and reception of literature The focus here is not so much on shared institutions but rather on such region wide analogous institutional processes as the national awakening the modernist opening and the communist regimentation the canonization of texts and censorship of literature These processes which took place in all of the region's cultures were often asynchronous and subjected to different local conditions The volume's premise is that the national awakening and institutionalization of literature were symbiotically interrelated in East Central Europe Each national awakening involves a language renewal an introduction of the vernacular and its literature in schools and universities the creation of an infrastructure for the publication of books and journals clashes with censorship the founding of national academies libraries and theaters a re construction of national folklore and the writing of histories of the vernacular literature The four parts of this volume are titled 1 Publishing and Censorship 2 Theater as a Literary Institution 3 Forging Primal Past: The Uses of Folk Poetry and 4 Literary Histories Itineraries of National Self images The File on H. Ismail Kadare,2012-01-31 In the mid 1930s two Irish Americans travel to the Albanian highlands with an early model of a marvelous invention the tape recorder Their mission To discover how Homer could have composed works as brilliant and as long as The Iliad and The Odyssey without ever putting pen to paper The answer they believe can be found only in Albania the last remaining habitat of the oral epic But immediately upon their arrival the scholars seemingly arcane research excites suspicion and puts them at the center of ethnic strife in the Balkans Mistaken for foreign spies they are placed under surveillance and are dogged by gossip and intrigue It isn't until a fierce eyed monk from the Serbian side of the mountains makes his appearance that the scholars glimpse the full political import of their search for the key to the Homeric question The Successor Ismail Kadare,2011-04-18 A powerful political novel based on the sudden mysterious death of the man who had been handpicked to succeed the hated Albanian dictator Enver Hoxha Did he commit suicide or was he murdered That is the burning question The man who died by his own hand or another s was Mehmet Shehu the presumed heir to the ailing dictator Enver Hoxha So sure was the world that he was next in line he was known as The Successor And then shortly before he was to assume power he was found dead THE SUCCESSOR is simultaneously a mystery novel an historical novel based on actual events and buttressed by the author s private conversations with the son of the real life Mehmet Shehu and a psychological novel How do you live when nothing is sure Vintage Kadare THE SUCCESSOR seamlessly blends dream and reality legendary past and contemporary history Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Balkan Beauty, Balkan Blood Robert Elsie, 2006-07-07 In these stories representing the last three decades of Albanian writing especially the burst of creativity in the newfound freedom of the 1990s readers will encounter work that reflects the literary paradox of Eastern Europe in the late twentieth century the startling originality of the new uneasily coupled with the strains of history the sophistication and self consciousness of late or post modernity married to the simplicity of a literature first finding its voice a refusal of political influence and pressure expressed through frankly political subject matter
