Contemporary Authors Vol 141:

Latina and Latino Voices in Literature Frances A. Day, 2003-05-30 This revised edition of an award winning resource celebrates the lives and works of 35 Latina and Latino authors who write for today's young readers. Expanded to include 12 additional authors, updated information on the original 23 authors profiled and 135 new titles, this comprehensive reference tool helps teachers, librarians, and parents stay current on one of the most dynamic areas of contemporary literature. Both established and emerging voices are profiled. Personal quotes and photographs introduce each biographical essay, presenting information gathered through interviews, personal communications, and research. A complete list of all books and works written by the author is included along with publication information. Annotations are provided for most of the titles along with information on major themes, awards won, and recommended age levels. Evaluating Books for Bias provides helpful guidelines for examining and selecting books from a pluralistic perspective. Appendices offer further helpful information about the field, including special awards honoring books by Latinas and Latinos, a calendar of holidays and special days celebrated by the Latino community, and listings of related resources and organizations. The author has also compiled ideas for classroom activities and ways for librarians to extend the literary experience. A title index and extensive topic index, including themes, curricular areas, and genres, help in planning story sessions and study units. This is a multipurpose resource for anyone who wants to help young readers connect with contemporary literature in a meaningful way. Contemporary Literary Criticism Jeffery Hunter, 2005 Covers authors who are currently active or who died after December 31, 1959. Profiles novelists, poets, playwrights, and other creative and nonfiction writers by providing criticism taken from books, magazines, literary reviews, newspapers, and scholarly journals. Notable Latino Americans Richard A. Garcia, Matt S. Meier, Conchita F. Serri, 1997-05-28 U.S. Latinos have made important contributions to American society, and this biographical dictionary is devoted to celebrating those contributions. All 127 men and women profiled in this work have immigrated to or been born in the United States and have made major contributions to American life and culture. Cuban Americans, Puerto Ricans, Mexican Americans, and others of Spanish, South American, Central American, and Caribbean heritage: more than one third of them are women. They represent 35 fields of endeavor and all 50 states. From historical figures to the newest sports champion, figure skater Rudy Galindo, this work provides profiles of both prominent and important but less familiar people who have made significant contributions in their fields. Many of those profiled can be found in no other biographical source. A selection of photos complements the text. All biographies have been written by experts in their ethnic fields. Those profiled range widely from distinguished scientists to sports stars, from actors to activists, from businesswomen to political personalities, from literary luminaries to labor organizers. All are potential role models for young men and women, and many have overcome extreme odds to succeed. These colorfully written, substantive biographies detail their subjects' goals, struggles, and commitments to success and to their ethnic communities. Among the 127 people profiled are Nobel Prize-winning scientist Luis Alvarez,
