Carnes, 2002-05-16 Because history is as fallible as the people who record it many of the figures who have shaped our country have receded from public memory In order to celebrate and call attention to these lives Oxford University Press asked fifty accomplished personalities from a diverse range of interests to each select a person from the 24 volume American National Biography that they felt deserved more attention In Invisible Giants the biographies of these forgotten figures appear alongside the often personal comments of their selectors We discover the man who inspired Sherwin Nuland to become a doctor the writer Jacques Barzun considers America's first cultural critic and the woman who taught Tina Brown to bare her teeth We learn of the poetry recited to Henry Louis Gates Jr as a boy the magazine Helen Gurley Brown required every one of her editors to subscribe to and the book Andy Rooney deems better than the Bible and easier to understand Edited by Mark C.
