Gurtner, 2006-12-21 In this 2006 text Daniel M Gurtner examines the meaning of the rending of the veil at the death of Jesus in Matthew 27 51a by considering the functions of the veil in the Old Testament and its symbolism in Second Temple and Rabbinic Judaism Gurtner incorporates these elements into a compositional exegesis of the rending text in Matthew He concludes that the rending of the veil is an apocalyptic assertion like the opening of heaven revealing in part end time images drawn from Ezekiel 37 Moreover when the veil is torn Matthew depicts the cessation of its function articulating the atoning role of Christ's death which gives access to God not simply in the sense of entering the Holy of Holies as in Hebrews but in trademark Matthean Emmanuel Christology God with us This underscores the significance of Jesus atoning death in the first gospel On the Trail of the Septuagint Translators Anneli Aejmelaeus, 2007 The essays of this revised and expanded collection were written by Prof Anneli Aejmelaeus over a period of 25 years The thread that runs through all these essays and holds the collection together is translation technique which is characterized as a central aspect of methodology rather than an object of study Only by tracing the trail of the Septuagint translators is it possible to gain a reliable picture of the different translators and of the Hebrew Vorlage their work was based on The themes dealt with in the individual essays range from the study of syntactical features of the Greek language used in the Septuagint to the guest for the correct understanding of the underlying Hebrew from the overall description of the translation character of certain biblical books to the application of translation technical data in textual criticism of the Hebrew text and from methodological questions to the discussion of theological interpretation by the translators reflecting the ongoing discussion in the international field of Septuagint studies and representing a significant and distinctive critical position in it Multiple Authorship of the Septuagint Pentateuch Hayeon Kim, 2020-02-17 For hundreds of years disputes on the origin of the Septuagint a biblical text that was translated from Hebrew into Greek in the third century BCE and the number of its translators have been ongoing In Multiple Authorship of the Septuagint Pentateuch Hayeon Kim provides a clear solution to the unsolved questions using an objective and consistent set of translation technique criteria and traditional and computerized tools of analysis According to the author the translation of the Septuagint Pentateuch has two facets homogeneity and heterogeneity The common socio religious milieu of the translators is apparent in the similar translation techniques however the individual characters of the five translators are also evident in their distinct translation styles
