Constructing Mark Twain Laura E. Skandera-Trombley, Michael J. Kiskis, 2011-11-07 The thirteen essays in this collection combine to offer a complex and deeply nuanced picture of Samuel Clemens With the purpose of straying from the usual notions of Clemens most notably the Clemens Twain split that has ruled Twain scholarship for over thirty years the editors have assembled contributions from a wide range of Twain scholars As a whole the collection argues that it is time we approach Clemens not as a shadow behind the literary persona but as a complex and intricate creator of stories a creator who is deeply embedded in the political events of his time and who used a mix of literary social and personal experience to fuel the movements of his pen The essays illuminate Clemens s connections with people and events not usually given the spotlight and introduce us to Clemens as a man deeply embroiled in the process of making literary gold out of everyday experiences From Clemens s wonderings on race and identity to his looking to family and domesticity as defining experiences from musings on the language that Clemens used so effectively to consideration of the images and processes of composition these essays challenge long held notions of why Clemens was so successful and so influential a writer While that search itself is not new the varied approaches within this collection highlight markedly inventive ways of reading the life and work of Samuel Clemens

Making Mark Twain Work in the Classroom James S. Leonard, 1999 A collection of articles on Twain s work expressing a broad range of critical perspectives and pedagogical methods intended to address race gender and class issues in the classroom

Unsettling the Literary West Nathaniel Lewis, 2003-01-01 The test of western literature has invariably been Is it real Is it accurate Authentic The result is a standard anything but literary as Nathaniel Lewis observes in this ambitious work a wholesale rethinking of the critical terms and contexts and thus of the very nature of western writing

Why is western writing virtually missing from the American literary canon but a frequent success in the marketplace The skewed status of western literature Lewis contends can be directly attributed to the strategies of the region's writers and these strategies depend consistently on the claim of authenticity A perusal of western American authorship reveals how these writers effectively present themselves as accurate and reliable recorders of real places histories and cultures but not as stylists or inventors The imaginative qualities of this literature are thus obscured in the name of authentic reproduction Through a study of a set of western authors and their relationships to literary and cultural history Lewis offers a reconsideration of the deceptive and often undervalued history of western American literature With unequivocal admiration for the literature under scrutiny Lewis exposes the potential for startling new readings once western writing is freed from its insistence on a questionable authenticity His book sets out a broader system of inquiry that points writers and critics of western literature in the direction of a new and truly sustaining literary tradition

The Making of Mark Twain John Lauber, 1985 Tells of the early years of Sam Clemens and the stages by which he becomes Mark Twain

Constructing Identities Antonio Medina-Rivera, Lee Wilberschied, 2013 The basic concern of border studies is to examine and analyze interactions that occur when two groups come into contact with one another Acculturation and globalization are at the heart of border studies and cultural studies scholars try to describe the possible interactions in terms of conflicts and resolutions that become the result of those possible encounters The present book is a peer reviewed selection of papers presented during the IV Crossing Over Symposium at Cleveland State University held in October 2011 and it is a follow up to our discussion on border studies The main focus of this volume is historical international gender and racial borders and the implications that all of them have in the construction of an identity

Treasury-Post Office Departments and Executive Office Appropriations for 1964 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations, 1963

From These Beginnings Roderick Nash, Gregory Graves, 2005 From These Beginnings looks at history through engaging biographical portraits of well known men and women whose contributions helped to create the nation and society Each biography offers a uniquely personal and provocative glimpse into the lives of these Americans and shows how their experiences are linked to historical events covering everything from the environment to popular culture

The Author-cat Forrest Glen Robinson, 2007 Forrest G Robinson argues that a strong autobiographical impulse infuses the whole of Clemens's fiction He shows how Clemens wrote out of an enduring need to come to terms with his remembered experiences not to memorialize the past but to transform it Clemens's special curse was guilt He was unable to forgive himself for the deaths of those closest to him especially members of his family from his siblings's death in childhood to the deaths of his own children Nor could he reconcile himself to his role in the Civil War his ignominious part in the duel that prompted his departure from Virginia City in 1864 and worst of all his sense of moral complicity in the crimes of slavery Tracing the theme of bad faith in all of Clemens's major writing but with special attention to the late work Robinson sheds new light on a tormented moral life directing attention to what William Dean Howells describes as the depths of a nature whose tragical seriousness broke in the laughter which the unwise took for the whole of him      The Construction of Junior Church School Curricula Edna Lucile
