Constructing Boundaries Jewish And Arab Workers In Mandatory Palestine:

Constructing Boundaries Deborah Bernstein, 2000-03-31 An interdisciplinary study discussing the impact of the national crisis in Mandatory Palestine on relations between Jewish and Arab workers and their respective labor movements

Contesting the Monolith Priya Singh, 2025-10-24 The book challenges the notion that Israel is a homogeneous state whether in theory or in practice It offers a detailed and critical intersectional analysis of nationalism ethnicity gender and marginality in Israeli society revealing how these forces converge to produce multiple as well as fused identities within a complex social fabric Examining the ruptures and fault lines that shape a multi layered society the study contends that Israel's exceptionality lies not in its self proclaimed Jewish and democratic character but in its resort to exceptional legal and coercive measures to mask internal diversity By obscuring this heterogeneous reality the state cultivates an illusion of a monolithic and uniform Israeli identity The analysis presents a society far more fragmented and stratified than official narratives suggest offering readers an understanding of how intersecting structures of identity and power operate in the Israeli context and how social and political institutions respond to and regulate internal difference This book will be of interest to academic researchers postgraduate and doctoral students and policymakers engaged with questions of nationalism marginality identity and Middle Eastern politics particularly within the disciplines of political science sociology Middle Eastern studies and gender studies

Canadian Readings of Jewish History Daniel Maoz, Esti Mayer, 2023-03-11 This book takes the reader through a genealogical embodied journey explaining how our historical context through various expressions of language culture knowledge pedagogy and power has created and perpetuated oppression of marginalised identities throughout history The volume is in essence a social justice initiative in that it shines a spotlight on elitist forms of knowledge and their attached privileged protectors As such the reader will unavoidably reflect on their own pre conceived meanings and culturally inherent notions while engaging with these pages and in so doing open a third space where new forms of knowledge that may transcend time and space can evolve into endless possibilities It is these possibilities of expanding the nuanced meanings of evolving knowledge fluid lifestyles and of a dynamic connection to humanity and God which make this book contextually relevant in our post modern landscape It un situates philosophies which have traditionally been unknowingly situated and in so doing propels the reader to re interpret discourse and recreate taken for granted universal truths

The Routledge Handbook of the History of the Middle East Mandates Cyrus Schayegh, Andrew Arsan, 2015-06-05 The Routledge Handbook of the History of the Middle East Mandates provides an overview of the social political economic and cultural histories of the Middle East in the decades between the end of the First World War and the late 1940s when Britain and France abandoned their Mandates It also situates the history of the Mandates in their wider imperial international and global contexts incorporating them into broader narratives of the interwar decades In 27 thematically organised chapters the volume looks at various aspects of the Mandates such as The impact of the First World

War and the development of a new state system The impact of the League of Nations and international governance Differing historical perspectives on the impact of the Mandates system Techniques and practices of government The political social economic and cultural experiences of the people living in and connected to the Mandates This book provides the reader with a guide to both the history of the Middle East Mandates and their complex relation with the broader structures of imperial and international life It will be a valuable resource for all scholars of this period of Middle Eastern and world history

Between Conflict and Collegiality Asaf Darr, 2023-07-15 Between Conflict and Collegiality explores how ethnonational religious struggle between Jews and Palestinians affects relations in ethnically mixed work teams in Israel Asaf Darr documents the tensions that permeate the workplace and reveals when such tensions threaten the cohesion of the work environment Darr chronicles the grassroots coping strategies employed by both Jewish and Palestinian through field studies conducted with workers in various sectors in Israel adopting a comparative method that identifies the differences in how ethnonational religious tensions play out Between Conflict and Collegiality asks how workers deal with external ethnonational and religious pressures and whether the broader ethnonational conflict is reflected in the career expectations and trajectories of minority group members Darr examines whether minority group members use of their own language at work become a point of contestation how religion is manifested in the workplace whether co workers from different ethnonational groups form amicable relations that extend beyond the workplace and whether positive experiences working in ethnically mixed workplaces have the potential to mitigate conflict in the wider society Stone Men Andrew

Ross, 2021-04-06 Winner of the 2019 Palestine Book Awards They demolish our houses while we build theirs This is how a Palestinian stonemason in line at a checkpoint outside a Jerusalem suburb described his life to Andrew Ross Palestinian stone men using some of the best quality limestone deposits in the world and drawing on generations of artisanal knowledge have built almost every state in the Middle East except one of their own Today the business of quarrying cutting fabricating and dressing is the Occupied Territories largest private employer and generator of revenue and supplies the construction industry in Israel along with other countries in the region and overseas Ross s engrossing surprising and gracefully written story of this fascinating ancient trade shows how the stones of historic Palestine and Palestinian labor have been used to build the state of Israel in the process constructing facts on the ground even while the industry is central to Palestinians own efforts to erect bulwarks against the Occupation For more than a century the hands that built Israel s houses schools offices bridges and even its separation barriers have been Palestinian Looking at the Palestinian Israeli conflict in a new light this book largely based on field interviews in the region asks how this record of labor and achievement can and should be recognized Boycotts Past and Present David Feldman, 2018-12-29 In this book historians and social scientists examine boycotts from the eighteenth century to the present day Employed in struggles against British rule in the American colonies against racial discrimination in the United States during the Civil Rights movement and Apartheid in South Africa today it is

Israel that is the focus of a campaign for Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Boycotts have featured in campaigns undertaken by labour consumer and nationalist movements Jews were the focus of some boycotts instigated by nationalist movements in Central and Eastern Europe and Jewish businesses were targeted by the National Socialist regime in Germany In this collection contributors explore the history of past boycott movements and examine the different narratives put forward by proponents and opponents of the current BDS movement directed against Israel one which places the movement within a history of struggles for human rights the other which regards BDS as the latest manifestation of an antisemitic tradition

History of Printing and Publishing in the Languages and Countries of the Middle East Philip Sadgrove, 2004 This important collection of articles by leading international scholars in the field of publishing and printing in the languages and countries of the Middle East results from a symposium held at the Gutenberg Museum in the Mainz in conjunction with the first World Congress for Middle Eastern Studies Wocmes in September 2002 It embraces significant developments throughout the length and breadth of the Middle East from London Malta Istanbul Cairo Palestine Sudan Zanzibar Persia Turkistan to Calcutta covering the period from the first state press in the Arab world established in the early nineteenth century and bringing the issue right up to date with an impassioned plea for a cultural rebirth in Arabic typography Huda Smitshuijzen AbiFares The study breaks previously neglected ground with articles on the book production of the early Bulaq press in Egypt 1822 51 Cheng Hsiang Hsu advertising agencies in Egypt 1890 1939 Relli Shechter Arabic books printed in Malta 1826 42 Palestine Ami Ayalon and Rene Wildangel Christian missionaries and colloquial Arabic printing Heather Sharkey the early history of publishing on the East African island of Zanzibar Philip Sadgrove the participation of Iraqi Jews in European and Indian journalistic enterprises Orit Bashkin a young Ottoman exile newspaper in London Hurrihet 1868 1928 and its owner Osman Zeki Bey Nedret Kuran Burcoglu Persian books published in Turkistan Olympia Scheglova and TULLIP a projected thesaurus of Persian lithographic works Ulrich Marzolph This goes some way to fill some of the lacunae in our knowledge of the development of printing and publishing in the area Much more emphasis needs to be given to the print media and its role in social political and cultural developments a second symposium is to be held at the Bibliotheque nationale de France in Paris in November 2005

Partitioning Palestine John Strawson, 2010-05-15 Law lies at the heart of the Palestinian Israeli conflict Israel s creation was rooted in the need for a Jewish homeland as enshrined in public law Palestinian rights to return to their homes and livelihoods are also established in law John Strawson argues that legal tools are being used to undermine Palestinian self determination His chronological account of modern Palestinian history shows that the League of Nations and the United Nations are responsible for developing a legal framework which marginalises the Palestinian people The book focuses on three key moments in the conflict the League of Nations Mandate the United Nations partition plan and the Oslo agreements None of these documents are neutral but rather encode a variety of meanings The book traces the way in which these legal narratives have shaped national identity Law far from offering conflict resolution has reinforced the trenches from which Palestinians and Israelis confront each other

The Encyclopedia of the Arab-Israeli Conflict Spencer C. Tucker, Priscilla Roberts, 2008-05-12

This exhaustive work offers readers at multiple levels key insights into the military political social cultural and religious origins of the Arab Israeli conflict The Encyclopedia of the Arab Israeli Conflict A Political Social and Military History is the first comprehensive general reference encompassing all aspects of the contentious Arab Israeli relationship from biblical times to the present with an emphasis on the era beginning with World War I The Encyclopedia of the Arab Israeli Conflict goes beyond simply recapping military engagements In four volumes with more than 750 alphabetically organized entries plus a separate documents volume it provides a wide ranging introduction to the distinct yet inextricably linked Arab and Israeli worlds and worldviews exploring all aspects of the conflict The objective analysis will help readers understand the dramatic events that have impacted the entire world from the founding of modern Israel to the building of the Suez Canal from the Six Day War to the Camp David Accords from the assassinations of Anwar Sadat and Yitzhak Rabin to the rise and fall of Yasser Arafat the 2006 Palestinian elections and the Israeli Hezbollah War in Lebanon
