Constructions Of Race Place And Nation:

Constructions of Race, Place, and Nation Peter Jackson, Jan Penrose, 1994 Environment and Planning, 2005

Constructing a Sense of Place Haim Yacobi, 2004 While it is widely recognized that architects and their architecture play a key role in constructing a sense of place the inherent nexus between an architectural ideology and the production of national space and place has so far been neglected Focusing on the Zionist ideology this book brings together practising architects and academics to critically examine the role of architects architecture and spatial practices as mediators between national ideology and the politicization of space The book first of all sets out the wider context of theoretical debates concerning the role of architecture in the process of constructing a sense of place then divides into six main sections The book not only provides an innovative new perspective on how the Israeli state had developed but also sheds light on how architecture shapes national identity in any post colonial and settler state Just Doing it Deborah Barndt, Gene

Desfor, Barbara Rahder, Institute of Policy Alternatives (Montréal, Québec), 2002 Stories of how marginalized groups and individuals battle to gain some measure of control of their lives Hip-hop Revolution Jeffrey Ogbonna Green Ogbar, 2007 As hip hop artists constantly struggle to keep it real this fascinating study examines the debates over the core codes of hip hop authenticity as it reflects and reacts to problematic black images in popular culture placing hip hop in its proper cultural political and social contexts Nested Identities Guntram H. Herb, David H. Kaplan, 1999-01-28 This text explores the importance of territory and space to a genuine understanding of nationalism and identity It combines theoretical insights with structured case studies on how national identity manifests itself in space and at different geographical stages

Nursing for a Multi-ethnic Society Kate Gerrish, Charles Husband, Jennifer Mackenzie, 1996 This book presents a challenging examination of the preparation of nurses and midwives for working within multi ethnic Britain In reporting the findings of a major two year research project funded by the English National Board of Nursing Midwifery and Health Visiting the authors offer a wide ranging overview of the current variability in the adequacy of the preparation of members of the nursing professions to work appropriately with minority ethnic clients This account is complemented by a detailed analysis of professional education in three specific educational institutions In combination these analyses reveal much about the institutional professional and pedagogic agendas which interact in shaping the adequacy of professional training By placing this data within a clearly developed review of ethnicity and nursing care the authors offer valuable insight and guidance which will enable educators and individual practitioners to address the health care needs of minority ethnic clients and communities International Media Monitoring Kaarle Nordenstreng, Michael S. Griffin, 1999 The chapters in this volume focus on the international system of monitoring media coverage of global problems such as peace and war human rights and the environment The kind of media criticism advocated by the media monitoring idea is motivated by scientifically based description and assessment of media performance carried out by methods of content analysis Islam in the European Union Yunas Samad, Kasturi Sen, 2007 Papers presented at a conference held in 2003 Kunapipi ,1996 Nationalism and Territory George W. White, 2000-03-22 Why do nations come into conflict What factors lead to the horrors of ethnic cleansing This timely book offers clear eyed answers to these questions by exploring how national identity is shaped by place focusing especially on Serbia Hungary and Romania Moving beyond studies of nationalism that consider only the economic and geostrategic value of territory George White shows that the very core of national identity is intimately bound to specific places Indeed nations define themselves in terms of spaces that have historical linguistic and religious meaning as Serbs have clearly demonstrated in Kosovo These territories are concrete expressions of a nation's identity both past and present With his detailed analysis of the places that define national identity in Southeastern Europe White convincingly shows why territorial disputes so often escalate into war Asian and Pacific Migration Journal ,2005 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1998 Making Place, Making Self Inger J. Birkeland, 2005 Making Place Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity covering key themes of place and space tourism and mobility sexual difference and subjectivity By combining ground breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography tourism and feminist studies Social Justice ,2005 Nga Patai Paul Spoonley, David G. Pearson, Cluny Macpherson, 1996 Provides chapters on the post war migration to New Zealand of Tagata Pasefika Pacific Islanders East Asians and South Africans and their incorporation or lack of it into New Zealand society debates about how we understand our history and ourselves as cultural and ethnic groups in the case of Maori Tagata Pasefika and Pakeha gender and ethnicity Treaty policies media justice and education of bicultural and multicultural policies Back cover Journal of Architectural and Planning Research ,2004 The Regional Construction of Identity and Scale in Wisconsin's Holyland Mary Beth Schlemper, 2003 Visions of "unity in Diversity" Kimberly A. Coulter, 2007 Changing Borders and Identities in the Kelabit Highlands Poline Bala, 2002
