Art in the Age of Mass Media John A. Walker,2001-08-20 Can fine art survive in an age of mass media If so in what forms and to what purpose And can radical art still play a critical role in today s divided world These are the questions addressed in the Art in the Age of Mass Media as John Walker examines the fascinating relationship between art and mass media and the myriad interactions between high and low culture in a postmodern culturally pluralistic world Using a range of historic and contemporary works of art Walker explores the variety of ways in which artists have responded to the arrival of new mass media He ranges from the socialist paintings of Courbet to the anti Nazi photomontages of Heartfield from community murals and Keith Haring s use of graffiti to the kitsch self promotion associated with Jeff Koons The new edition describes what happened during the 1990s including Toscani s adverts for Benetton the simulations of Leeds 13 art and cinema Damien Hirst and the cyberart currently being produced for the internet      The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion John Hinnells,2009-09-10 The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion is a major resource for courses in Religious Studies It begins by explaining the most important methodological approaches to religion including psychology philosophy anthropology and comparative study before moving on to explore a wide variety of critical issues such as gender science fundamentalism ritual and new religious movements Written by renowned international specialists this new edition includes eight new chapters including post structuralism religion and economics religion and the environment religion and popular culture and sacred space surveys the history of religious studies and the key disciplinary approaches explains why the study of religion is relevant in today s world highlights contemporary issues such as globalization diaspora and politics includes annotated reading lists a glossary and summaries of key points to assist student learning      Dot Dot Dot 10 Stuart Bailey,Peter Bilak,2005-12 The journal whose very name promises more to come delivers two issues this season There aren t too many places to find intelligent passionate and witty writing about the past present and future of visual culture Dot Dot Dot the brilliant journal edited by Stuart Bailey and Peter Bilak is one of the few we ve found and we re happy to be able to present it in our catalog Issue 10 the composite issue collects the best pieces from the previous issues into one new one In the first issue Dot Dot Dot laid out a statement of intent Issue 10 will be the answer to that intent It can only be answered
