Austrian Information , 2008 Moving Images, Mobile Viewers Renate Brosch, 2011 Vision and movement seem to have shifted center stage in modes of experience in the last century as a result of their joint effect slow contemplative gazes at static images seem to be increasingly displaced by distracted vernacular ways of seeing Looking out of the window of a speeding car receiving photographs of Earth from outer space watching the flickering images of the TV screen scrolling through a text zooming in on a location in Google Earth or sending images via mobile phones or webcams all these are unique visual experiences that were impossible before various inventions in the 20th century originated completely new kinds of movement. The double meaning of moving images is meant to signal the specificity of motion to these images and at the same time to express the emotional power of those visual images which are able to transcend the constant stream of images in contemporary perception. Second Language Teaching and Learning through Virtual Exchange Shannon M. Hilliker, 2022-02-21 Virtual exchanges provide language learners with a unique opportunity to develop their target language skills support inter cultural exchange and afford teacher candidates space to hone their teaching craft. The research presented in this volume investigates the role of virtual exchanges as both a teaching tool to support second language acquisition and a space for second language development. Practitioners obtain guidance on the different types of exchanges that currently exist and on the outcome of those exchanges so that they can make informed decisions on whether to include this type of program in their language teaching and learning classrooms. To this end this edited volume contains chapters that describe individual virtual exchanges along with results of research done on each exchange to show how the exchange supported specific second language teaching and learning goals.
