Leadersmithing Eve Poole, 2017-03-09 Shortlisted for the Business Book Awards 2018 Leadership is in danger of becoming a tired phrase in the world of management it may sound cerebral and important but more often comes across as static and trite Which might explain why so many leaders feel like imposters they may have a vision or masterplan but the reality is daily messiness acute uncertainty and fragile loyalty from team members Often they have been parachuted in to transform a complex situation or promoted in unexpected circumstances Are there more effective ways in which people can learn the art of being a great leader Being an effective leader is about the daily grind and it is a far from glamorous existence but it can be hugely rewarding if leaders are realistic about the choices they face In many trades and professions mastery of the subject can take a lifetime leadership is no different An apprenticeship approach can breathe life into the development of leaders day in day out Using insights gained by Ashridge Business School about how leaders really learn Leadersmithing guides readers through the process of becoming more precisely job ready and more effectively resourced for the challenges they face The result is a more confident leader more perceptive as to their vocation and mandate and able to maintain the most effective position at the very top of their game

Online Personal Brand Ryan M. Frischmann, 2014-07-19 Online personal branding is a requirement for all professionals The common argument of the experts is you have a digital footprint in social media and on the internet so people are already making impressions of you Take control of their perceptions More importantly you have an opportunity to proactively project your personal brand onto networks Two other advantages of personal branding are that it forces you to be visionary of your career goals and helps you land favorable employment This book shares a functional angle to personal branding that is refreshingly simpler than the traditional marketing angle The definition of an online personal brand is the combination of a skill set an aura and an identity and there is discussion where the concepts overlap
