The content includes an introduction to SEO, a list of three key points (Provide good content, Research your keywords, and Understand the needs of what you want your website to do), and a section titled "How is SEO different from SEM and PPC?". The right sidebar shows a "Top Score" of 88% and a table of metrics: Writing (98%), Research (92%), Links (85%), and Quotes (81%). Below this, there are four "Top Topics" listed with their respective scores: "Search engine optimization" (94%), "Content marketing" (92%), "Content strategy" (90%), and "SEO optimization" (88%).

Beginner's Guide to Search Engine Optimization

SEO stands for "search engine optimization." In other words, SEO means the process of improving your website to increase the visibility in Google, Microsoft Bing, and other search engines. Here are some steps you can take to:

- Provide good content
- Research your keywords
- Understand the needs of what you want your website to do

The better content your pages have in search results, the more likely you are to be found and clicked on. Therefore, the goal of "search engine optimization" is to help search engines understand your website, your website's customers, needs, or to achieve whatever content goal.

How is SEO different from SEM and PPC?

SEM and PPC are two other content areas you will encounter in terms of Search Engine optimization. Read the blog "Search Marketing Fundamentals" to learn more about each of these services and how they're different.

SEO vs. SEM

SEO stands for "search engine optimization," or in other words, making your website
