School Libraries Supporting Students with Hidden Needs and Talents Karla Bame Collins, 2024-10-03 Together librarians and specialists can create experiences to reach all learners in their buildings including those with hidden needs and talents While school librarians are experts at collaborating with classroom teachers too often they overlook the specialists in their buildings as key collaborative partners Focusing on the many specialists who work with students Karla Bame Collins provides information about their roles and responsibilities and discusses how school librarians can collaborate to improve learning for all students including those with hidden needs disabilities and talents that are not easily detected and may go undiagnosed Because librarians work with every student but may not always be informed about each student s particular needs it s important for them to know whom in the school to turn to for information Librarians will gain ideas for working with students to provide the best possible learning environment for each This practical book looks at the whole school library environment collection instruction space and programming and offers many ideas for librarians to collaborate with other educators and specialists for the good of all students Qualitative Research Methods for Media Studies Bonnie S.

Brennen, 2025-01-20 This fully updated fourth edition provides students and researchers with the tools they need to perform critically engaged theoretically informed research using methods that include interviewing focus groups historical research oral histories textual analysis ethnography and participant observation and digital ethnography and netnography Each chapter features step by step instructions that integrate theory with practice as well as a case study drawn from published research demonstrating best practices for media scholars Readers will also find in depth discussions of the challenges and ethical issues that may confront researchers using a qualitative approach With new case studies and examples throughout this fourth edition also includes updated and expanded material on performing data analysis how to analyze and understand research findings performing social media research and the use of big data and Artificial Intelligence A I This includes a brand new chapter on generative A I which examines recent advancements and technological developments and considers ways qualitative researchers can use it for their research A comprehensive and accessible guide for those hoping to explore this rich vein of research methodology this book provides students and scholars with all the tools they need to be able to work with in today s convergent media environment Beyond Identities in Modernity Yunrui Deng, 2024-11-08 This book argues that future generations of modernity as a whole will shape participatory modernization whether Chinese modernization or Western modernization The public discourse is inundated with the good and the bad modern events with the acceleration of globalization This book debates that the biggest question in the twenty first century is not who will dominate touting a new world order upon us but rather that it is the orientation of modernization that haunts our daily realities This book explores the idea that life is not about living for an identity in any society it is about the demands for dignity and safety It goes further to state that there is also a demand for the power of being and these three elements are beyond identities as modernization moves forward Interdisciplinary in nature the book uses theories data and philosophy as toolboxes to align with microrealities around the globe Witnessing modernization and modernizing identities in China and in Australia beyond day by day the author provides a more suitable more realistic and possibly more nuanced perspective This book will be of interest to professionals students academics as well as businesspeople with China experience interested in modernization and identity the Chinese perspective and the new generation of Chinese
