Crossroads Diane Thiel, 2005 In Crossroads a wealth of exercises and rich diversity of models address the elements of writing fiction poetry creative nonfiction and drama while developing students writing skills Crossroads Diane Thiel, 2005 Winding Roads Diane Thiel, 2008 This book offers exciting and challenging exercises to help focus your creative nonfiction writing These exercises set simple tasks enabling you to practice your technique and develop your existing skills book cover Teaching Creative Writing to Second Language Learners Ryan Thorpe, 2021-12-20 This timely and accessible book offers engaging guidance to teachers of second language students on teaching creative writing in their classrooms Creative writing is a tool that can inspire second language learners to write more play with language and enjoy and improve not only their writing but also their speaking listening and reading skills Addressing the expectations and perceptions of writing in another language Thorpe demonstrates how to foster successful creative writing environments and teach and assess creative writing in a way that is tailored to the distinct needs of non native speakers Covering key topics such as cultural storytelling voice genre and digital composition assessment and more Thorpe shares successful creative writing instructional practices informed by current research in creative writing and second language education Each chapter includes insights advice and student examples that can help new teachers take their first steps in more reflective second language creative writing classroom An invaluable resource for instructors of non native students and an ideal text for pre service teachers in courses in TESOL writing instruction and applied linguistics this book invites you to use creative writing not only as a successful method for teaching L2 writing but also as a way to improve student motivation and output for more effective language learning Mentor and Muse Blas Falconer, Beth Martinelli, Helena Mesa, 2010-08-30 In Mentor and Muse a collection of twenty nine insightful essays by some of today's leading poetic minds editors Blas Falconer Beth Martinelli and Helena Mesa have brought together an illuminating anthology that draws upon both established and emerging poets to create a one of a kind resource and unlock the secrets of writing and revising poetry Gathered here are numerous experts eager to share their wisdom with other writers Each author examines in detail a particular poetic element shedding new light on the endless possibilities of poetic forms Addressed within are such topics as the fluid possibilities of imagery in poetry the duality of myth and the personal and the power of one to unlock the other the surprising versatility of traditional poetic forms and the pleasure of collaboration with other poets Also explored in depth are the formative roles of cultural identity and expectations and their effect on composition advice on how to develop one's personal poetic style and approach the importance of setting in reading and meaning and the value of indirection in the lyric poem Challenges to conventional concepts of beauty are examined through Shakespeare's sonnets and the ghost of Longfellow is called upon to guide students through the rewards and roadblocks of writing popular poetry Poetic persona is demystified through Newton's law of gravity while the countless permutations of punctuation are revealed with analysis of e e cummings and W S Merwin The essays include the full text of the poems discussed and detailed relevant writing exercises that allow students the opportunity to directly implement the strategies they have learned While many advanced topics such as authenticity discordant music and prosody are covered this highly readable volume is as user friendly as it is informative Offering a variety of aesthetics and approaches to tackling the issues of composition Mentor and Muse takes poets beyond the simple stages of poetic terms and strategies These authors invite students to explore more advanced concepts enabling them to draw on the traditions of the past while at the same time forging their own creative paths into the future Chosen as one of the Best Books for Writers by Poets Writers magazine

Afro-Dog Bénédicte Boisseron, 2018-08-14 The animal rights organization PETA asked Are Animals the New Slaves in a controversial 2005 fundraising campaign that same year after the Humane Society rescued pets in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina while black residents were neglected some declared that white America cares more about pets than black people These are but two recent examples of a centuries long history in which black life has been pitted against animal life Does comparing human and animal suffering trivialize black pain or might the intersections of racialization and animalization shed light on interlinked forms of oppression In Afro Dog Bénédicte Boisseron investigates the relationship between race and the animal in the history and culture of the Americas and the black Atlantic exposing a hegemonic system that compulsively links and opposes blackness and animality to measure the value of life She analyzes the association between black civil disobedience and canine repression a history that spans the era of slavery through the use of police dogs against protesters during the civil rights movement of the 1960s to today in places like Ferguson Missouri She also traces the lineage of blackness and the animal in Caribbean literature and struggles over minorities right to pet ownership alongside nuanced readings of Derrida and other French theorists Drawing on recent debates on black lives and animal welfare Afro Dog reframes the fast growing interest in human animal relationships by positioning blackness as a focus of animal inquiry opening new possibilities for animal studies and black studies to think side by side
